FAREWELL PRESENTATION.

Friends of Miss Frances Kinsella gathered at the home of Mrs. E. J. Smith, Metcalf street, on Thursday evening to tender her a farewell party before her departure from the city. She left last evening for New York-Miss Kinsella was made the recipient of an onyx ring as an emblem of esteem. Toasts were given in her honor and with games and music a pleasant time was enjoyed.

The Douglas avenue renewal job has been rushed through night work being done. Is it the idea of City Hell to prolong the other street jobs in Union street, City Road and Germain street by working only by day?

Through a misprint yesterday in a local paragraph on an article pertaining to soldiers' taxes, reference was made to exemption for "those earning $2,000,000." One of the chaps in the composing room evidently is trying to "kid the troops."

FOR BRIDE-TO-BE.

About thirty friends of Miss Mabel Connell gathered at the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Fry, 17½ Brindley street, last evening and tendered her a novelty shower. Miss Connell is to be a principal in a happy event in the near future. Many useful presents were received and a happy evening spent at games, etc. Refreshments were served and the party broke up in the early hours.

The Standard says that when the wind blew last evening the dust "played about and in and out of the eyes of the people." We have never experienced that very obliging variety of dust; it usually takes a great deal of patience, probing and tear-shedding before the mote agrees to come out.

TRYING TO HURRY THEM.

No reply has been received by Mayor Hayes to his last letter to the department of marine and fisheries, Ottawa, regarding the status of the ferry property under the proposed transfer of the harbor facilities to the federal government. This is the chief obstacle in the way of a decision of the matter and his worship has written more than once on the subject without receiving any satisfaction. Before R. W. Wigmore, M. P., left for Ottawa he agreed, at the request of the mayor, to try to secure action and the city solicitor also was pledged to stop at Ottawa on his return from the coast to see what could be done.

Carnegie's gifts to Lloyd George and other Englishmen caused much surprise over there, but we haven't heard of any of them who have not survived the shock.

AN AUTOMOBILE CASE.

S. A. M. Skinner was this morning reported for exceeding the speed limit at the foot of King street. Mr. Skinner said he was not in the car and Policeman McNamee said that the car was operated by some ladies. Mr. Skinner told the court that he was yery much opposed to speeding but as he was not operating the car he did not think he was liable. The magistrate concurred with this and remarked that he wanted it distinctly understood that for driving on the wrong side of the street a person might be excused but for speeding street care when the was liable. FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN; IS DEAD IN BRIGHTON, MASS.

Friends in the city will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Mc-Millan Balfour, which occurred on Thursday, Sept. 4, at her home, 68 Mapleton street, Brighton, Mass. Death was due to pneumonia. She was the wife of John B. Balfour, and formerly belonged to this city, being a sister of the late William McMillan of Douglas avenue.

"We will fix the profits on everything," says Mr. O'Connor of the Board of Commerce. Rather more encouraging than the former form of announcement which ran "We will hold an investigation."

Mrs. Balfour, besides her husband, is survived by one son, William J., of Quincy, Mass., and two daughters, Mrs. Chester Briggs of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. Walter Burnap of Brighton, Mass. Mrs. Walter Burnap of Brighton, Mass. Mrs. Briggs has visited here quite frequently also. Wm. J. McMillan of North End is a nephew, and Misses Margaret and Katherine, nieces. Mrs. Balfour was held in general esteem, and many will sympathize with the family upon her death.

IN THE MARKET

IN THE MARKET

In the city market this morning beef was quoted at from 20 to 35 cents; veal, 25 to 30 cents; pork, 35 to 40 cents; ham, 35 to 40 cents; lamb, 25 to 35 cents; mutton, 20 to 25 cents; bacon, 55 cents; chicken, 65 cents; fowl, 60 cents; butter, 55 cents; eggs, 65 to 70 cents. Vegetables were plentiful and the following quotations were made:—Potatoes, 40 cents a peck; turnips, 20 cents a peck; beets, 20 cents a peck, carrots, 5 cents a bunch; parsnips, 60 cents a dozen; cabbage, 15 cents each; cauliflower, 10 to 25 cents each, and onions, 10 cents a pound. Cucumbers were 6 cents each; tomatoes, 10 cents a pound; celery, 10 to 15 cents a bunch; squash, 5 cents a pound; corn, 25 to 30 cents a dozen; cranberries, 25 cents a quart; blueberries, 15 cents a box; radishes, 5 cents a bunch, and apples, 30 cents a peck.

Man In The Street

The Prince laid a corner stone in Ottawa this week. We don't think he belongs to the union but we remember reading that he had been made a Mason

The Renown was held up at Halifax because of fog, which rather disposes of the idea formerly prevailing there that the only places it was to be found were St. John and in Webster's.

"Apres La Guerre"
Returned soldiers who find themselves deprived of their privilege of paying taxes this year should be consoled with the knowledge that they probably will be given a chance to pay more next year.

A morning paper quotes the motto of the Y. W. P. A. as, "Not for Myself but for Gid and King." We have no reason to believe that our contemporary intended to impute giddiness as one of the young ladies' attributes.

Boston Globe:—John Kendrick Bangs, of fering himself as a candidate for Congressman from Maine, calls himself "a son of Ogunquit," and refuses to hear echo answering, "Quit!" Comment from Maine indicates that no one there wents to see the son-of-a-qun-quit.

Nepigon, Ont., Sept. 6—While a minor affection of the eyes from which the Prince of Wales is suffering is not considered likely to persist for more than a day or so, commander Newport, the prince's physician, was sent for yesterday and left with an Indian guide for Victoria Camp, the first stopping place on a fishing trip which will take the prince and his suite through the famous Nepigon waterways.

prince and his suite through the famous Nepigon waterways.

The programme arranged for the next three days of the prince's journey is considered the best possible corrective for the fatigue which His Royal Highness feels after the arduous round of visits which has kept him busy since his arrival in Canada. The eye trouble is causing no anxiety. The irritation was caused by steel dust blown into the prince's eyes while he was inspecting the steel plant at Sault Ste Marie on Thursday.

LABOR MINISTER

Welland, Ont, Sept. 6—There is a rumor that Hon. G. D. Robertson, minister of labor, will resign and contest this riding against the Liberal candidate in the next federal election.

Not being a member of the commons, and to participate more directly in the business of parliament, he must look for a seat, and it is believed, he is looking toward his native county.
