REAL LOVE AND LUXURY.

(From the Lawrence Sun.)
The woman with a ribboned and scented dog hugged to her heart may imagine she knows love.
The woman living in the elegantly appointed hotel may think she knows luxury.
The woman in the childless mansion may think she knows wealth.
The woman who has no cares may think she knows happiness.
But the woman in her own home, with her own child at her breast, knows all these and knows them better than all the others do.
The home may be humble, but it is her home.
The child may be a care, but it is her child.
And in all the ages since woman was created for motherhood woman nature has not changed in this respect one whit.
One of the greatest crimes possible against mankind is committed when a home is broken up by outside forces. Lives torn loose from accustomed moorings, and without chart or compass are set adrift upon an unknown, cruel sea. The sea is black with ritting hulks broken in the sundering of family ties and the crushing of the holy influences of home.
One of the latest things for travelers is a package of six individual paper towels, each with a soap wafer inside, all in a sealed case.

To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of macerated wheat. Nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with the natural processes of the skin. Instead of freckled or blotchy cuticle, gently, gradually, comes the clear, healthy, glowing complexion of renewed vitality. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or nerve tone, macerated wheat comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you've never tried macerated wheat, get an ounce of it at the drugstore, use at night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. Another natural beautifying treatment—for wrinkled skin—is to bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of ascorbic acid in a half-pint of water. This is remarkably and instantaneously effective.

No More Ugly Hairs To Mar Your Beauty

(Toilet Tips.)
Any woman can keep her skin free from bothersome hairy or fuzzy growths by the following simple and speedy method: Mix a stiff paste with a little powdered talc and some water; apply this to the objectionable hairs and let it remain about two minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and every hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience attends this method, but to be certain of results it is advisable to buy the talc in a small original package.

Take Over 70,000 Acres

Edmonton, Alta, June 11—George H. Draper of New York, and J. Mitchell Hoyt of Chicago, heads of a syndicate of American capitalists, have acquired 70,000 acres of virgin lands in the Vermillion valley, east of Edmonton, where a colony of experienced farmers will engage in diversified agriculture. The land cost $1,000,000, one-fifth of which was paid in cash, the balance being spread over a period of five years.

A Century of Peace

London, June 10—The ball and pageant in Albert Hall tonight commemorating the centenary of Anglo-American peace provided the most brilliant spectacle seen here for a long time. Many of the notable people of the London social world were present together with a large number of American and colonial visitors.

Hints for the Cook

Rhubarb and Raisin Marmalade.
Peel and cut four pounds of rhubarb in small pieces, heat very gradually to the boiling point, then add four pounds of sugar, the juice of one lemon, the grated rind and juice of four oranges and two pounds of seedless raisins. Cook slowly until thick, pour into glasses and seal when cold.
Chocolate Cornstarch Mold.
One pint of milk, three tablespoons cornstarch, quarter teaspoon salt, quarter cup sugar, one square chocolate, half teaspoon vanilla. Put milk and chocolate into top of double boiler to scald. Mix sugar, salt and cornstarch thoroughly, add a little cold milk and stir into the hot milk. Cook till free from any new taste, add vanilla and pop into wet molds. Serve with cream and sugar.
Scotch Shortbread.
Rub four ounces of butter into six ounces of flour and add two ounces powdered sugar. Knead the mixture until it becomes a stiff paste. (When it is hard to knead I add one egg but that is not necessary.) Mold it on a board with your hands. Roll out and cut in fancy shapes. Prick with fork and bake in moderate oven 15 minutes.

It has Ended 60 Million Corns
