The Deal is Off.

Richmond, Va., July 2.—Local promoters tonight abandoned their efforts to bring the Baltimore International League Baseball Club to Richmond, because the Virginia League demanded $12,700 for the transfer of its Richmond franchise to Lynchburg.

New York, July 2.—There will be no change in the baseball circuit of the International League this season, and the clubs will play out their regular schedule on the dates and in the cities as arranged last spring. This was the announcement made at the adjournment of a special meeting of the organization tonight.

TURF.
Sydney Races.
Sydney, N. S., July 2.—Two Halifax horses took the cream of the events at the trotting park today. Gallagher, owned by Peter Carroll and Arlene, owned by L. R. Acker, the Halifax and Sydney theatrical man, finishing first and second respectively in the free-for-all trot and pace.

In the 2:30 trot and pace there were ten starters and among them were perhaps the best horses in this class ever gathered together in this city.

Give it to Kibane.

Cincinnati, July 3.—Johnny Kibane, champion featherweight, fought ten rounds here last night with "Knockout" Mars of this city. No decision was given, but the champion had the better of most of the rounds. The newspaper and popular verdict awarded the fight to Kibane.

In Auckland, it appears, women still keep their hats on in the theatres. At a comedy a very large lady was requested by a small man behind her to remove her headgear.
"I can't see the stage," he told her, "and I want to laugh with the rest of the audience."
"Oh, indeed?" she replied, indignantly. "Well, you just watch my shoulders and when I laugh you laugh."

JOE PAGE, BACK FROM CHICAGO, TALKS OF THE
BASEBALL SITUATION

Joe Page, baseball expert and scout for the Chicago White Sox, returned to the city on the holiday after a pleasant trip to several cities in the United States, including Detroit, Jackson, Mich.,

Buffalo, Baltimore and Chicago. Joe combined business with pleasure and got a line on several players for Comiskey. Speaking of the Chicago team in which he is interested, Mr. Page said that they were forging ahead steadily after a rather bad start. Of the last eleven games played, the Sox succeeded in landing nine. The luck is breaking their way now, and the men are beginning to hit. Although they are now in sixth place in the league race, only seventy-five points separate them from the leading team.

Tommy Daly, although not being worked regularly, is keeping in condition and is occasionally used in the pinches. He asked to be remembered to his St. John friends.

Asked how the absence of Chase was affecting the strength of the team, Mr. Page said, "It would seem as though it were a good thing that jumped the club, as they have won almost consistently since he left. In his successor, Fournier, the Sox have a man who is holding his position and hitting a stroke as good, if not better, than the Chase standard."

"How does the Federal League draw?" he was asked.
"The Chicago and Baltimore they are being well supported, but they are a joke in the other cities, compared with the attendance at the other league games. As far as Chicago is concerned, although the Feis are receiving a liberal patronage, they do not interfere to any great extent with the attendance at the White Sox games."

Mr. Page will be in the city for some days.
