CHAMPIONSHIP BOUTS AT ARMORY PROVE HIGHLY INTERESTING SERIES

Final of 126-Pound Class,
However, Causes
Difficulty.

The New Brunswick boxing championship bouts at the Armory last evening provided a wonderful fight treat. It is conceded by hundreds who were present that the programme of events was one of the most interesting ever staged in this city and to the participants and the efficient committee of the Y. M. C. I., under whose auspices the championships were held, go the laurels for the highly interesting evening's entertainment. While there were a few disappointments, which is customary in every tournament, due to some of the entries failing to show up and others being disqualified by the doctors, the show on the whole was an unequalled success and reflects credit on all concerned.

One of the greatest events on the programme was the preliminary bout in the 126-pound class between Louis Donovan, Maritime flyweight champion, and Bruce Winchester, both of this city. Donovan proved to be a much harder hitter than his opponent and was awarded honors. Time after time he had Winchester groggy and finally landed a knock-out which terminated the bout. The latter's gameness was a feature and his efforts won the admiration of all. From the tap of the gong the boys started right in and many hard blows were landed by both. Donovan working a fast "one-two" style soon took the lead and began to pile up points, although in the final round he found himself pitted against a youth game to the core and always right there willing to give and take. When the end came the applause was deafening.

Every other bout on the extensive programme was also interesting and many a thrill was given to the fans present as this or that one came through with an unexpected rally. The work of Les Burns, a youngster in the 100-pound class, who fought his way through to the championship, was a feature. Although only a slip of a boy he showed a real knowledge of boxing, was cool under fire and quick to take advantage of every opening or lapse on the part of his opponent.

Pat Whipple, who refused to stop smiling although he was stopping everything in the ring, was a general favorite. There was no stopping him, and although he was outpointed in the final of the 112-pound class, he made many friends. He was the real most willing mixer on the card and his opponents found that there was little use pummeling him for he would right back looking for more and always pounding away. He was defeated by Murray Young in the final of this class after a very hard battle in the final rounds.

Kennedy Beats Britt. The 135-pound class proved one of the disappointments of the evening. Harper, who was entered and who was expected to give "Klax" Kennedy a real go for the title, was refused admittance by the doctors. As a result Kennedy had only one opponent, Farrell Britt. The latter proved to be a clever boxer and a willing mixer, but he lacked the physique of his older and more experienced opponent and after the bout had gone into the second round, Referee Donohue ordered it stopped and gave Kennedy the award.

Donovan Claims Foul. Donovan met Eric Snow of the Tro in the final of the 126-pound class.

BENTLEY HEARD ON LIQUOR QUESTION

Pat Whipple, Y. M. C. I., opened the 112-pound section with H. Lunney, Y. M. C. I. Both boys showed they were in good condition, Whipple winning out. Lunney showed up well in the final round. Murray Young, Y. M. C. I., met William Ferguson, St. Mary's, Halifax, in the next bout. Murray won by a close decision.

Murray Young, Y. M. C. I., clashed with Pat Whipple, also of the Y. M. C. I., in the final of the 112-pound class. Whipple took considerable punishment, the final round being a "humdinger". Young earned a clean-cut decision. Whipple tried hard.

112-Pound Class. "Bilby" Caravanagh, Maritime 112-pound champion won the 118-pound class. He met and defeated Ray Bolard, Y. M. C. I., in one round and won the final by default of Harold Warnock, St. Mary's, Halifax. Warnock qualified for the final by defeating Jim Sandon, Y. M. C. I., after a hard struggle.

100-Pound Final. In the final of the 100-pound class, L. C. Burns met E. Goldsworthy, unattached. The former showed himself to be a handy little artist with his dukes and won the title.

106-Pound Final. Ricketts met Lee in the final of the 112-pound class. Both boys were evenly matched but Lee surprised the fans by putting up a good offense against his more experienced opponent and he won the title in decisive style.

100 Pound Class. The first bout of the card was between W. Carigan, St. Mary's, Halifax, and Boyce, unattached. Carigan, they say, paid his own way over. He showed good footwork but was not the physical equal of the local boy, and Boyce earned a unanimous decision. The visitor got a fine hand from the fans.

Lea Burns, Y. M. C. I., met W. Damery, unattached, in the next bout. The youngsters started fast but soon slowed up. There was considerable slugging in this bout. Burns got the decision, though, his aggressiveness. E. Goldsworthy, unattached, met Frank McGrath, Y. M. C. I., in the third bout. The initial round was fast and furious and the crowd cheered lustily.

The second round was fairly even. In the final section, McGrath unintentionally fouled his opponent and Goldsworthy earned a chance for the finals.

108 Pounders. The 108 pound class next held the spotlight. Mason and Lee, opened proceedings and after three rounds of milling Lee, unattached, won out. D. McKinnon, unattached, and A. Ricketts mixed matters in the second bout of the 108 class. Ricketts won handily and was qualified for the finals.

The bouts were well handled by the following officials: Referees, W. Donahue and J. J. Power; clerk, Ernie Yitling; announcer, William Case; medical men, Dr. J. R. Nugent and Dr. H. S. Clarke; timers, C. Owens and J. Daley.

Fredericton, April 11—Dick Hunt, of Halifax, welterweight, received the City Opera House here tonight over Billy Groff, of Winnipeg. Hunt had the better of the fight from the first tap of the bell.

the outset been a believer in Government ownership, but private capital had accomplished nothing and in 1920 he as Premier felt that the time had come for the Government to act.

His friends opposite had not declared themselves in favor of public ownership. They were without a policy in regard to hydro development, as in regard to crown lands and other departments. Mr. Foster gave documentary proof that the decision to develop the Musquash instead of the Lepreau was adopted on the advice of Henry Holgate the consulting engineer, and not for any other reason. With regard to the situation in St. John, he had been unfairly criticized. He had done all in his power to bring about a settlement between the city and the power company, and regretted his failure to do so, and still believed an agreement should have been made. The old company would make no substantial reduction in rates, but now, as a result of Musquash development there has been a great reduction. He believed St. John would provide a market for the current the Musquash and Power Company both could produce. As to his own utterances he could not read on the records where he had said Musquash development would cost a million or two and a half millions. The one million was an initial approximation.

Musquash Accounts. Mr. Foster discussed the method of keeping the Musquash accounts and said it was the method recommended by Price, Waterhouse & Co. He went into a detailed analysis of the financial position of the Musquash development and made comparisons with other projects and stoutly defended the local enterprise. He endorsed Grand Falls development and alluded to the expansion of the pulp and paper industry that would follow.

Regarding prohibition, he had two years ago outlined a policy the same as that recently outlined by Hon. Mr. Magee. He believed it would have tended toward true temperance.

Industrial Farm. In the House this afternoon Mr. Scully's resolution asking the Government to confer with that of Nova Scotia regarding an industrial farm was passed without debate, after Mr. Scully had made a brief but very strong speech in its favor.

April 9 was Mary Pickford's birthday, and while no official figures are available it is believed she is about thirty years old. She can pass for anything from sixteen years up and age cannot wither nor custom stale and so forth.

Deplores Levy. Mr. Bentley deplored the levy with which the subject of prohibition had been treated by some members. With regard to the Liquor Commission, the volume of business was not as large as was generally believed. The sum of $800,000 was turned over to the Federal Government. Some liquor was undoubtedly sold for medicinal, mechanical and sacramental purposes. Telling into account the very high price of liquor, the quantity sold was not as large as appeared on the surface.

An effort was being made to make it appear that prohibition could not be enforced. With that he did not agree. If the British Empire could save time and waste caused by the liquor traffic it could pay off the national debt in seven or eight years.

Wants No Change. He wanted no change in the New Brunswick law but wanted it enforced, and it was the duty of every citizen to co-operate instead of criticizing. The battle had not yet been won. He was opposed to the province taking revenue from the liquor traffic. It is as wrong for a nation as for an individual to put the bottle to his neighbor's lips.

Mr. Foster on Hydro. Hon. Mr. Foster, in opening his speech said with a smile that while he had listened with interest to Mr. Bentley, his own remarks would have to do with water.

With regard to Musquash there had been complaints some time ago that the Government could not take care of all the water collected, but now it was complained that they had provided for the care of too much. He had not at

KID ROY HOLDS CHAMPIONSHIP

Makes Boston Boxer Quit in Sixth Round in Montreal Bout.

Montreal, April 12—Leo Kid Roy, champion featherweight of Canada, successfully defended his title here tonight when Tommy Nee of Boston quit in the sixth round of his scheduled ten round bout with the champion. His seconds threw their towel in the ring.

Teddy Cossette, local featherweight, was awarded the decision in a ten round bout with Kid Dube of Lewiston, Me., in the semi-finals. Cloris Durand, local featherweight, was given the decision over Jimmy Manning of Boston in a six round preliminary bout. Gravel, local featherweight, got the decision over Jimmy Sherron of Boston, in a six round preliminary bout.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES REORGANIZE LEAGUE

The Civic and Civil Service Baseball League held a reorganization meeting last evening with Fred Shannon presiding. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, the Mayor-elect; president, Charles Day; vice-president, Andrew Martin; secretary, Philip Lavore; treasurer, John Bain.

There was a general discussion regarding grounds, players, rules, etc., and the meeting adjourned until April 23.

Three teams have so far entered, Post Office, Customs House and Public Works, while the Water Department team is expected to enter by the next meeting.

The Independent Producers and Distributors Association, which is not connected with Mr. Hayes' organization, is looking for a "Landis." It need look no further than its own organization, as no better man for the place could be secured than Oscar Price, one of the members, who was assistant secretary of the treasury under Wilson during the war.
