LET. MR. VAN HORNE ANSWER

Of the reciprocity pact Sir William Van Horne has said he was "ashamed," and Sir Thomas Duggan says that he was "dismayed." Hon. Mr. Sifton is declaring that reciprocity would mean a tremendous drop in the value of land in Canada, particularly in the west.

Sir William Van Horne and Sir Thomas Duggan really ought to look over the advertising literature of their own company.

On August 29—that is ten days ago—the window of the Canadian Pacific Railway offices in Seattle was decorated with a large streamer bearing these words:—

"RECIPROCITY WILL INCREASE CANADA LANDS 100 PER CENT.—Can. Pac. Ry. Lands Department."

What a shame to take the money.

CAMPAIGN IN THE CITY AND COUNTY

Stirring Meeting at Loch Lomond in Interests of Mr. Lowell—This Week's Schedule of Liberal Meetings

That the Loch Lomond district is going strongly for James Lowell was demonstrated Saturday evening, when hundreds of electors from that vicinity crowded the Agricultural hall on the Black River road, to listen to reciprocity discussed by Mr. Lowell, A. F. Bentley, M. P. P., W. G. Pugsley, Dr. Lunnay and W. B. Fawcett, of Sackville. The enthusiasm throughout the meeting was high and the reception accorded the speakers most gratifying.

Alexander Johnson presided at the meeting and in introducing Mr. Lowell he took occasion to refer to the excellent way the interests of the people of St. John county had been looked after by Mr. Lowell in the local legislature. He felt sure that the county was going to show their appreciation by rolling up a big majority for him on Sept. 21. This remark was met with cries of "We will."

Mr. Lowell was in fine form and made one of his best speeches since the opening of the campaign. He assured his audience that if elected he would not only be in the best interests of the country he would not be offering himself for election. He had studied the question, however, and was positive that the trade agreement was going to result in a great boon for the farmers and the lumbermen, and the fishermen, and he pointed out that it would help the consumer as well.

He considered the district cry too nonsensical to talk about and explained that the Conservatives themselves were not sincere in raising the cry that had been raised over the repeal of the Pike law was sufficient proof that the lumbermen throughout the province realize that their only salvation lies in the endorsement of the trade agreement. He did not look for enormous increases in prices for natural products, but he said there would be larger and steadier markets for the farmers.

Mr. Lowell was cheered to the echo.

Discussing reciprocity from the farmer's standpoint, Mr. Fawcett made a fighting speech and his convincing arguments in favor of the agreement were generally applauded. Mr. Bentley spoke last, his point made a great impression.

Both Mr. Pugsley and Dr. Lunnay were well received and like the other speakers they were loudly cheered. The meeting was closed with cheers for the king, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the candidates.

Meetings have been arranged for this week as follows:

Monday, Sept. 11—Meeting at Little River, to be addressed by James Lowell, W. G. Pugsley, W. J. Mahoney and Dr. L. M. Curran.

The same night James Lowell, John Keefe, Dr. T. H. Lunnay and J. Polard D. Lewin will speak in the Milford hall.

Tuesday, Sept. 12—Meeting at Brookville, to be addressed by A. F. Bentley, M. P. P., J. A. Barry and others.

In Carleton City Hall next Friday night there is to be a monster mass meeting. This will be one of the big affairs of the whole campaign. The candidates will speak and Dr. Silas Alward; also some others not yet heard in this city in the present fight. St. John West is sure to give an exceptionally good account of itself this time, because of the particular interest its citizens have in the causes of the trade agreement that will mean more money to them and also because of its practical knowledge of the daily worth of steamer traffic terminals with its numerous remunerative side issues.

LOOKS WELL AT HILLSBORO

The New Brunswick Portland Cement Company are vigorously prospecting on the limestone ridges at Hillsboro, and it is found that the quantity of limestone is practically unlimited. The company are employing all the labor that can be obtained. The rock is within a stone's throw of the railway and five miles from the wharf at Hillsboro. Those who know say that builder's lime of best quality can be exported to compete successfully in the American market in spite of the duty as the oil produced from the shale rock supplies the necessary fuel free of cost.

IS NOW IN JAIL

Richard Plasse, formerly organist in the Mission Church of St. John the Baptist, Paradise row, is in jail in New York, charged with bigamy and perjury. His wife, Isabel Murray Johnson Plasse, made the charges. The pair, it is said, were married in St. John about three years ago and resided here for several months. Plasse held the position of accountant in several offices in the city. He was well known in musical circles, and for some time sang in the choir of St. Paul's (Valley) church.

BIG PRODUCE MAN OUT FOR RECIPROCITY

Frank DeL. Clements Shows up Flemming's Change of Front—Liberal Campaign in Province Great Success

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 9—A vast crowd of people assembled at Stanley on Saturday night to hear speakers in favor of reciprocity, and they applauded heartily all that was said. Frank DeL. Clements, a well known produce dealer, who has always been a Conservative, made the feature speech of the evening, endorsing reciprocity and stating that the Conservative leaders' only regret was that reciprocity was a Liberal measure.

He raised a storm of applause when he singled out Hon. J. K. Flemming as an instance. He said that at an interview in the Victoria Hotel, St. John, Mr. Flemming had unhesitatingly stated that the measure would mean new life to the province and that it would be suicide to oppose it. Politics and that alone was responsible for Flemming's present opposition.

Mr. Clements regretted that he had to break with his party but he could not oppose reciprocity when he knew his party recognized its benefits, and he stated that, in addition to Mr. Flemming, he could and would, if necessary, name three other equally prominent Conservatives now opposing it, who knew and admitted to him its wonderful and far-reaching effects. Dr. Atherton and R. W. McLellan were the other speakers. Dr. Atherton was given the floor last.

en a welcome which would seem to assure his being elected by a big majority. He has been making many converts to Liberalism through his popularity and the popularity of the issue.

Mr. Clements stated that Stanley Douglas, lumberman and mill-owner of Stanley, had refused to sign Crockett's nomination papers, being in favor of reciprocity, although he had long been a strong Conservative.

Col. H. H. McLean returned yesterday from his constituency, Queens-Sunbury. He said he felt that a splendid majority, as the people are strongly in favor of reciprocity and the Laurier administration.

A large number of Conservatives are strong for the pact.

The Liberal Club rooms in Woodstock would not hold all the crowd who assembled to hear F. B. Carvell and Rev. J. McColl on Saturday night, so adjournment was made to the Hayden-Gilson Theatre, where the speakers were heartily received as they presented telling facts in favor of reciprocity. J. N. Draper, a former Conservative, presided. The speakers told of the excellent market offered to the farmers on the other side of the line, and besides dealing with the farmers' advantages referred strongly to the lumbermen's, the traders, and the common people's opportunities for benefit through the agreement.

Henry Beckwith, a former New Brunswick, now living at Cushing Island, Me., has written to the Moncton Transcript that he knows several former Canadians, sons and daughters of farmers in country districts in the maritime provinces, who like him, intend going back to their old homes to settle when reciprocity carries. He says he sees no reason why it should not carry, and feels certain it will.

MORNING LOCALS

James Hayes, of Milford, had his fingers badly cut by falling on some glass last evening. Dr. Macfarland dressed the wounds.

Dr. Donald C. Malcolm, who will be one of the principals in an interesting event this week, was entertained at White's on Saturday evening by friends. Alderman McGoldrick was chairman. Speeches were made by Dr. W. H. Rowley, Dr. T. D. Walker, Dr. F. J. Hogan, Dr. S. H. McDonald, Dr. F. C. Bonnell, Dr. F. W. Dunlop, and Messrs. H. J. Fleming, Dr. P. Donald, George Winters, captain of the Marlboroughs, and Joe Page. Dr. Malcolm received a handsome travelling bag.

The funeral of Eulus Welsh was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his home, 42 Thorne Avenue. Service was conducted by Rev. B. H. Nobles, and interment was in Cedar Hill cemetery.

Leo McCann of Sheriff street, was shot in the back while playing with other boys on the rifle range yesterday afternoon. They had a revolver, and Walter Tridde fired and struck a tree. The bullet glanced and entered McCann's back. He was taken to Dr. Kelly's office and the ball was extracted. He is not badly hurt.

OBITUARY

Miss Johanna Collins.

Besides the pictures, you will find numbers, sizes, back views, suggestions as to materials, color, trimmings, and all the little accessories of correct dress gathered together in convenient form.

Remember, this Quarterly Style Book is the only publication in which you can find a complete assortment of The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns. In it are garments of every imaginable sort worked out for you by the world's accepted authorities on designing and pattern making.

And there is not one design in the whole book that you can't have for yourself.

The Ladies' Home Journal Patterns

are so stylish, so simple and satisfactory that they have helped thousands of women—women who never before thought of attempting their own sewing—to do all their own dressing in their spare time.

If the Style Book were simply a fashion magazine, we would have to charge you 40 or 50 cents a copy, but as a complete pattern catalogue—every copy of which sells patterns for use in a solid way below the price of regular magazines.

So you are able to get your copy and a certificate entitling you to any 15 cent pattern you select (after you have had plenty of time to look through the book)—both for only 20 cents.

MR. HATHWAY IS CHALLENGED BUT DOES NOT ACCEPT

T. Donovan Spoils Effect of Conservative Oratory By Some Practical Questions

In the course of an ineffective onslaught on the Minister of Public Works at the Conservative West End meeting on Friday night, W. F. Hathway, M. P. P., was somewhat disconcerted when Timothy Donovan asked him some pointed questions. No attempt was made to give a direct answer, but instead the queries were sidestepped. In one of his flights Mr. Hathway dramatically exclaimed that "Cousin Bay had been talked of for three years, but not a scoop full of mud had been taken." Mr. M. P. P. then Mr. Donovan asked "How many scoops full of mud have the Conservative government taken out of St. John harbor in eighteen years?"

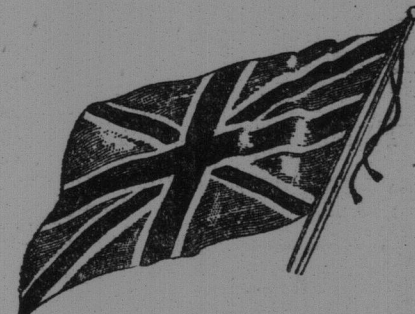

Mr. Donovan then offered to meet Mr. Hathway on a public platform on the east or west side and discuss the Conservative party in their relations to the city of St. John and the city of Miramichi. This was not accepted. Mr. Hathway getting out of the difficulty temporarily by saying that he would consider it.
