Elder H. Chipman, at this place, about the year 1808, but remained in a low state, and divided among themselves, until the past year; when they were visited by Br. Ansley, whose labours were greatly blessed among them. - a church was formed, and numbers were added to it.*

Liverpool.—This little Church, which was first formed by Br. David Nutter in 1821, became almost extinct, and it was not until last April, that it was re-organized by Br. Ansley, and several added to it; when it was unanimously agreed to join the Association. This tender branch of the Lord's Planting, requires much, the prayers of God's people. They ask for advice and help from the Association: we trust that every assistance that can be afforded them, by any of the Ministering Brethren, amid the numerous and pressing calls of the like kind throughout the Province, will be cheerfully given; and that the Church will strive earnestly to keep up a careful and humble walk with God, and a constant attention to the means of public and united prayer; and ere long perhaps the Lord may either send, or raise up among themselves, some fit person to minister to them in holy things!

New Albany.—This new Church, formerly a branch of that of Nictaur, was organized on the 12th of the present month, [June] by Brethren Ansley and Bill, and has been one of the fruits of the late revivals.—Br. Bill preaches among them occasionally.

... to maintain the purity of the Church, and to preserve the unity of the Kingdom of God, we must be diligent in our efforts to bring forth the full number of the harvest. We have seen the fruits of the Spirit in many hearts, and we are confident that the Lord will continue to bless our efforts. We have seen the fruits of the Spirit in many hearts, and we are confident that the Lord will continue to bless our efforts.
