KILRAIN AND SLAVIN TRAINING.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Both Kilrain and Slavin have gone into strict training for their 10-round glove fight on June 16.

Slavin, accompanied by Charley Mitchell, visited Coney Island on Saturday and selected for training quarters the hotel on the boulevard, conducted by the widow of Billy O'Brien.

Kilrain, in company with William Muldoon and Mike Cleary, arrived at Muldoon's farm at Belfast on Saturday. He took his first training lessons for his fight with Slavin yesterday.

Athletic.

SHERRILL HAS BROKEN EOWN AGAIN.

NEW HAVEN, Ct. May 19.—All Yale men are sympathizing with Sherrill, the sprinter. His accident at Cambridge Saturday brings to mind the fact that he had decided to give up all athletics and only entered this year to save Yale, if possible, from utter defeat. Not until two weeks ago did he consent to once more go on the track.

In justice to Sherrill it can be truthfully said that he took this step through pure loyalty to his college, and that he again broke down will not detract anything from the splendid reputation that he has made as a sprinter during his course at Yale.

Sherrill is confined to his room and will probably not be able to attend recitations for several weeks.

At the Institute.

Gorton's Minstrels had a crowded house last evening, and in the circle they carried out their programme very well, E. Elliot's Down on the Farm, being perhaps the choice of the house, and Hank Goodman's "Ella, Darling Ella", the choice of the gallery. Rudolph Schroder twisted a pair of glittering Indian clubs about his arms and head for a few minutes, and attempted some few feats of club juggling. Henry J. Yorkey's presentation of the old darkey was good, while the Euphonium solo, Within a Mile of Edinboro' Town by L. M. Maxson was very excellently rendered.

Welby and Pearl would have been more appreciated if they had appeared as clowns in their "difficulls" tumbling, high jumping and kicking act. They would have carried out the farce better. The sexette clog was the best feature of the evening beginning with introducing the Turkish Patrol; solos by Eugene Elliott and duos by Welby and Pearl, Schroder and Pearl, and concluding with a mazourka clog. This finished the show which will be presented again this evening with a few changes.

Of Personal Interest.

Rev. Mr. Smith has gone to Halifax.

Rev. L. G. Stevens, who has been suffering from lumbago for the past few days felt considerably better today.

The Educational Meeting in Toronto.

The National Educational Association of the United States holds its annual meeting in Toronto, July 14th to 17th. The association was organized in Philadelphia in 1857, since which time it has held meetings in Cincinnati, Washington, Buffalo, Chicago, Ogdensburg, Harrisburg, Indianapolis, Nashville, Trenton, Cleveland, St. Louis, Boston, Elmira, Detroit, Minneapolis, Baltimore, Louisville, Chatauqua, Atlanta, Saratoga and other American cities. The coming meeting will be the first ever held in Canada. The objects of the association are to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of teaching and to promote the cause of popular education. The meetings in an educational point of view, will be the most important ever held in Canada, perhaps on the continent. Among the speakers will be Sir John A. Macdonald, the Commissioner of Education for the United States, Momolu Massaquoy, Prince of the Vay nation, Africa, Dr. Oronhyatekha, and many other prominent educationists. Hon. W. T. Harris will deliver an address on Education in the United States, and the Educational System of Ontario will be explained by Hon. George W. Ross, Minister of Education for that province. Papers on Manual training in Female education will be read by Miss M. Narroway and Miss K. R. Bartlett of this city. Visitors to the meeting of the association will find good hotel accomodation at $1 a day, or board in private houses at $5 per week. All Canadian railways have decided on the one fare rate for the round trip, plus the two dollars membership fee except from points within a radius of about 100 miles from Toronto, in which the rate will be single fare for the round trip without the membership fee added. The fare from St. John either via Levis, Megantic or Portland will be $21.50, while arrangements have been made for side trips by railway or steamer, for members, at half fare, to Brockville, Prescott, Ottawa, Kingston, etc. It will be easy for teachers in this province to attend the meetings, and make one or two excursions from Toronto, say to Niagara Falls or Ottawa, at an expense not exceeding forty dollars, and it is hoped a good delegation will be present from this province. It is hoped, too, that the subject of industrial or trade schools will be carefully considered and discussed by the able educationalists who will be present.

Drunk on Paregoric.

They have a new kind of a drink in Portland Me. supposed to be the ramrod style. Bangor can better afford to stand the fusilade of criticism on account of its open saloons than witness such incidents as this described by the Argus: A man was arrested down the Avenue last night beastly drunk on paregoric. Men have been arrested before full on Jamaica ginger, but this is the first case of a paregoric drunk.
