Have the painter do your work with the paint that will prove most economical and satisfactory.

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT, PREPARED

It will prove most economical because it will put off the need of repainting for the longest possible time; most satisfactory because it will give the best results in application, appearance and wear.

We would like to have the opportunity of figuring on your paint requirements when you are ready. A full line of colors in S.W.F. to select from.

The Fall River, Mass., corps of the Salvation Army observed its 31st anniversary at the Citadel on Bedford Street on Sunday, Nov. 21st. The corps was presented by Army Headquarters with two brand new flags. Besides the 15 members of the corps who were decorated with 20 years or more service in the Army, Rev. Frank H. Jackson, pastor of the Church of the Holy Communion, presided. A number of other speakers were present.

Miss Phyllis Manning-Jones, "The Dame of the Flag," and responded to an address by Mr. James and Mrs. Sparrow, formerly of Colley's Point, are in charge of the Fall River corps. The soloist is a daughter of the officers in charge.

Striking Example of Patriotism

OTTAWA, Dec. 15.—A particularly striking example of patriotism is given by an aged officer of the Marine and Fisheries Department in Nova Scotia.

He writes the Hon. J. D. Hazen: "I beg to inform the Department that I am an aged man now, too old to go to the battlefield, but I shall be pleased at any time to tender my resignation from the position that I now hold in favor of any disabled soldier returning from the front."

War Without Warfare

ON five hundred mile western front, nothing to report; on the eight-hundred mile eastern front, nothing to report; on the Italian front, nothing to report; on the Gallipoli front, nothing to report; action over a front of a few miles in Greece, action in Montenegro, action in Mesopotamia, action in the desert of Sinai, such is the present status of the great war. It has become, almost, a war without warfare. Humanity will be disposed to hope that until after the Christmas season is well over the states may so continue. —Beck's Weekly.

To the War Lord

From Riga's mouth to Africa they lie,
Your own brave dead,
Dusted to their death, they fought,
They know not why,
Ignorably.

Unhappy Harriet in their lives betray:
Dispersed in their death, where they are laid
Lies no fair fame—
The terror of the seas will lay its cost
On their souls, too—
Your crime—yet in our wrath and sorrow most
We pity you—
—Togo Arnica, London Evening Standard.

Now, in your shame,
Dispersed in their death, where they are laid
Lies no fair fame—
The terror of the seas will lay its cost
On their souls, too—
Your crime—yet in our wrath and sorrow most
We pity you—

Machine Guns

I can talk as fast as five-and-twenty fire.
Despite my quaint and captivating
stutter:
I can check a German massed attack
in style
With the thousand little telling things I utter.
I'm a tricky little party, I admit,
And my mechanism takes a bit of knowing;
Though I wouldn't tell a cove, had I have been knew to jam.
You should hear me when I once get fairly going!

The Boches early tumble to my worth
In keeping all intruders at a distance;
When their legions started out to claim the earth
They were keen upon obtaining my assistance.

The British thought me useful in the night,
Or a handy little adjunct in surprise.
But to-day the fact is known I am more than hold my own
On any old occasion that arises.
—Touchstone.
