Mr. H. W. Hazel, of Philadelphia, was the speaker last Sunday at the Toronto Opera House, his subject being, "Land Reform: The First Step." Mr. W. A. Douglas, who made the announcement, said that in all probability next Sunday would be the last lecture the friends of this movement could guarantee the citizens of Toronto, unless some kind of funds came forward with the essential money to help to defray the burden that up to the present time have been borne by the few.

Health and Vigor depend upon the quality and quantity of the blood. HUMANITARIAN
The liver is the great secreting organ of the body and when it fails to perform its office, bile accumulates and the blood becomes poisoned, causing many unpleasant symptoms, such as, dull, heavy, lagging feeling, indigestion to attend to, pains in back or shoulders, near stomach, constipation, dryness of the skin, restlessness at night, etc.

ALLIED TRADES ALL RIGHT
The following is the text of the agreement reached at Indianapolis by the representatives of the International Unions in the printing trades:
AGREEMENT.
The duly authorized representatives of the I. T. U., the I. P. P. and A. U., the I. B. of B., and the I. S. and E. U., for the purpose of more clearly defining their obligations to each other, the powers of local Allied Printing Trades Councils, and for the further purpose of avoiding disputes and securing the harmonious cooperation of all local unions in joint defensive action and label agitation, do hereby agree:

1. For the purposes of this agreement a Joint Board of Appeals shall be created as follows: Three representatives from the I. T. U., one representative from the I. P. P. and A. U., one representative from the I. B. of B., and one representative from the I. S. and E. U.
2. The Joint Board of Appeals may adopt such rules of procedure in the hearing of appeals and the conduct of other business that may properly come before it as do not conflict with this agreement or the laws of any of the organizations parties hereto.
3. The officers of the joint board shall be a president, a vice-president a secretary, and such other officers as the board may determine, but no two executive officers shall be chosen from one organization.
4. On demand of a majority of the organizations that constitute this board, the president shall call a meeting at a convenient time and place.
5. In the event of the representative of any party to this agreement voting with the I. T. U. on an appeal, and the I. P. P. and A. U. and the I. B. of B. being jointly dissatisfied with the verdict, the two last named organizations shall have the right to call in a seventh and disinterested party, to be mutually agreed upon, whose decision shall be final. If a tie vote should occur under any other circumstances, a seventh party, as above, shall be called in, and his decision shall be final. On a question of appeal, all organizations named herein must vote.
6. Each organization shall pay the expenses of the joint board in proportion to its representation.
7. In localities where there are unions chartered by two or more of the organizations parties to this agreement, a local Allied Printing Trades Council shall be formed. Should any such chartered union decline to form an Allied Printing Trades Council, the aggrieved union or unions shall be allowed an appeal on this question to the joint board through their respective international organizations.
8. Allied Printing Trades Councils shall be composed of three delegates from each local union holding a charter from one of the parties to this agreement, and from such other organizations affiliated with the American Federation of Labor as may receive the unanimous consent of the joint board to their admission.
9. Each delegate present at any meeting of the Allied Printing Trades Council shall be entitled to one vote; provided, that a roll call may be demanded by the representatives of any union on a question of the raising of revenue or the election of officers, and in such roll call each union shall be entitled to additional votes as follows: For fifty (50) members, one vote; for each additional fifty (50) members or major fraction thereof, up to three hundred (300) members, one vote; for the fraction thereof, one vote; for each additional five hundred (500) members or major fraction thereof, one vote. The membership to be computed in accordance with the last per capita tax paid by each local union.

10. Allied Printing Trades Councils may elect such officers and adopt such provisions and rules for their own government as are in conflict with this agreement or the laws of the organizations parties hereto, but no such officer may be chosen from the representatives of one local union, except by unanimous consent.
11. The officers of Allied Printing Trades Councils shall not exceed those specified in this agreement, and such councils shall not take hostile action of any character, except by unanimous consent, against any local union.

12. Any local union may request the assistance of the Allied Printing Trades Council in the adjustment of any difficulty that may arise. Upon failure of the council or the local union, and should a joint or sympathetic strike be desired, the question shall be referred to the local unions for action in accordance with the laws of their respective unions.
13. Should any Allied Printing Trades Council refuse to abide by the decision of the Joint Board of Appeals, it shall be dissolved, and the unions affiliated therewith shall be deemed immediately to have severed their connection with the basis of the decision of the joint board.

14. The I. T. U. shall procure and hold all Allied Printing Trades Council union labels, and shall loan same to local Allied Printing Trades Councils of its agents in accordance with the terms of this agreement, upon receipt of a sum of money from the local council desiring them, not exceeding 10 per cent. above the cost of production and distribution of said labels.
15. No Allied Printing Trades Council shall issue any label differing in design from the label now known and registered as the Allied Printing Trades Council Union Label, nor duplicate, nor allow the duplication of said label, except in the case of stereotyped or electrolytic forms in which case the label appearing in the plate or on the form shall be destroyed immediately on completion of the work on which it is used.

16. No other body than the Allied Printing Trades Council shall be allowed to grant the use of the Allied Printing Trades Council union label.
17. Labels shall be loaned only with the unanimous consent of unions represented in the Allied Printing Trades Council. Unions objecting to the issuance of the label in any instance must produce a valid reason for such objection. The Council to be the judge of the validity of the such reasons, subject to appeal to the joint board; provided, no active member in good standing of any branch represented in an Allied Printing Trades Council, who runs an office of not more than two platen presses, and in the operation of such office complies with the nine-hour law and the laws of the jurisdiction, shall be permitted to use the label; provided, the entire work of the office be done by the proprietor thereof, and that when employment is given to any additional help members of affiliates must be employed. Violation of the foregoing shall be deemed sufficient reason for the immediate surrender of the label.
18. The above provisions shall not apply in cities of 500,000 population or over.

19. In regard to label issuance, should any union affiliated with a local Allied Printing Trades Council feel that an injustice has been done it, or should any local Allied Printing Trades Council feel that the action of any affiliated union is detrimental to the best interests of the council, an appeal may be taken to the joint board under such provisions as may be adopted by said board.
20. Whenever an Allied Printing Trades Council is in existence, the local unions affiliated therewith shall withdraw the label of their respective unions, unless otherwise decided by the joint board.

MISCELLANEOUS.
20. When a joint or sympathetic strike shall have been inaugurated by the parties to this agreement, the initiating union shall pay those involved as follows: The sum of seven dollars ($7.00) per week for each man involved, and five dollars ($5.00) per week for each single man or woman involved, for the period of eight weeks, unless settlement is sooner effected.
21. This agreement may be altered or amended on motion of any one organization party to this agreement, and the unanimous consent of the other parties hereto.
22. This agreement shall go into effect on its ratification by the proper authorities of the organizations signatory hereto.

Signed by the representatives of all the international unions in the printing trades:
Over 100 girls in the employ of J. N. Ward & Co., manufacturers of working men's clothing, of Peoria, Ill., are out on strike against a "spiteful and unscrupulous foreman." The girls belong to Local 146 of the United Garment Workers of America.

There is a bye-election in Vancouver, B.C., for the Dominion Parliament, made necessary through the death of the representative from that riding. The candidates are the ex-Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, D. McInnes, as an Independent Liberal; R. G. McPherson, as a straight Liberal; and Chris Foley, as a labor representative. Chris is well known in Ontario as well as British Columbia, and his past career, which has been successful, and his past career, which has been successful, and his past career, which has been successful.
