What I desire to say is this: that I hope that whatever discussion -we may have, religious or otherwise, will be forgotten when it is over and that we will unite like patriotic mea to promote the in crests of the people of this province. Serious charges have been made against me not only by the opposition press, but by corcoo cowardly to sign their names, and now the hon, members from the city and county of St. John renew those charges. It wil ontest that took place in Kent, in order to place myself fairly before the House. I went ato Kent as every hon. member knows, to onsult with the friends of the government, and the first time I addressed a meeting was at Kingston where a convention was held All I said at that meeting was that we de sired to place a candidate in the field that I and not come there to dictate to the people. eighbors means Protestant as well as but that it was only fair for us to ask that we be allowed to place our policy before th of Bathurst Village.
