THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (Ltd.), at St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $3 a year. ST. JOHN STAR. gards some statements published with respect to transactions with the ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 9, 1902. Rev. J. O. Morley of St. Philip's church THE BILIOUS GLOBE.

The Globe appears to be in a particularly billous mood of late. Its fault-finding faculty is working over-time. It has discovered that there were tories present at the congress of boards of trade in Toronto, and is especially sco.nful in its allusion to the St. John delegates.

Touching the resolutions with referance to preferential trade, the Globe scents danger to the broad liberal principles of free trade. Yet the Globe supports a protectionist government, which has violated all its free trade pledges of former years. The who met in Toronto are business men. They do not all hold the same views on trade questions. There was, on the ntrary, great. divergence of opinion. But they met together as Canadian citizens, with the interests of Canada at heart. Naturally the delegates from various sections of the country viewed the different questions from a local as well as a general standpoint, and their participation in the conference was all the more valuable on that account. The Toronto Star, which is a very positive grit paper, and makes merry at the xpense of some members of the conference, says that nothing occurred at the meetings to embarrass the premier in his negotiations at the imperial con-The Star says' that the trade resolution of which the Globe comlains was "discreet and deliberate." Describing the various elements in the onference the Star includes this one:-

"Others again, with a wistful eye to-ward the United States, asked what the great American Republic would think of these things. They hardly liked to offend Uncle Sam, being some-what hypnotized by that gasconading country, where the rich are growing richer and the poor poorer."

Is it with a "wistful eye toward the United States" that the erstwhile annexation organ in St. John sneers at the efforts of Canadian business mer to bring about closer trade relations with the rest of the empire?

TARTE ON BLAIR.

Mr. Blair and Mr. Blair's organ have a shivering spell whenever Mr. Tarte rises to discuss transportation matters. Mr. Tarte has always regarded with tempt Mr. Blair's dream of making the I. C. R. a great through line for ocean-borne traffic, and has had no sympathy whatever with those who Mr. Blair's interest denounced the C. P. R. Mr. Tarte's latest deliverance so complete a repudiation of Mr. Blair's views that it must have been a particularly bitter pill for papers like the Telegraph. Mr. Tarte said he would make St. John the winter freight port for this reason, which he said was obvlous:-"The C. P. R. must be depended upon almost exclusively to supply the trade for the winter port, and the own line runs only to St. John, so that the Canadian (steamship) line should furnish it with return freights."

Thus the I. C. R. is thrust uncereoniously into the background, without even a suggestion of apology to Mr. Blair, and the boast of the latter that he would give the Grand Trunk and Portland, Me., a little active competition, is brushed aside by the master of the administration, as an already ex-

It is quaintly recorded that "the champion then threw down his gaunt-let, which, having lain a short time upon the ground, the Herald took it up, and delivered it again to the champion. Then then advanced to the middle of the hall, where the ceremony was again performed, in the same manner. Last-ly, they advanced to the steps of the Throne, where the Herald (and those who proceded him), ascending to the middle of the steps, proclaimed the challenge in like manner; when the champion, having thrown down his gaunfiet and received it again from the herald, made a low obelsance to the king; then the cup-bearer, having re-ceived from the officer of the jewel-house a gold cup and cover filled with white, presented the same to the king, and his majesty, after drinking to the champion, sent the cup-bearer to him with the cup. The champion, having put on his gauntlet, received it, made a low obelsance to his majesty, and be-fing accompanied as before, he left the hall, taking with him the cup and cov-er. as his fee." It is obvious that, should this cere-mony be revived in any form in full public view, the detail will be consid-erably revised. CORONATION CONTINGENT.

Harry Gilbert. P. Egan and Andrew Burns, captured the race. In '01, the Winogene was the victor and again this year Mr. Fairweather's boat cross-ed the line first. The conditions called for a course four miles to windward and return. Saturday there was a light wind, south to southwest, and it was found neces-sary to go to Grand Bay to got the re-quired course. The start was made about 3 o'clock from a buoy off Brown's house, the turning buoy being in South Bay. The Gracie M. was first across the mark, followed closely by the Winogene and Wahbewawa. The three boats kept well together, chansing positions almost every tack. Shortly after the start the Gracie M. met with an accident, her spinnaker boom being broken by a fail. The Gracie turned the buoy first, followed closely by the other boats. The Wino-gene was the first to break out her spinnaker and quickly overhauled the other yachts. The Winogene and Wah-bewawa gradually ran away from the Gracie and were close together to the very failsh. In fact the two yachts were so close, the Wahbewawa crowd-ing the Winogene, that Mr. Fairwean very maiss. OF ROYAL DESCENT Interesting Marriage of Alleged Great-Granddaughter of George IV.

Grandaughter of George IV. Walter A. Donaldson, a clerk in the naval office in Manhattan, New Yerk, who lives at the Crescent Athletic Club, was married in Washington last week to Mrs. Lucy Ord-Mason, daughter of the late General Ord, U. S. A., who was reputed to be a grandson of George IV. of England. The ceremony which was performed in Washington was the re-ligious ceremony which was arranged some time ago to follow the civil mar-riage of Mr. Donaldson and Mrs. Ord-Mason. This civil ceremony was per-formed by an alderman in the City hall in Manhattan about two months ago. At that time Mr. Donaldson, who is a Catholic, applied to a priest in New York for a dispensation to wed Mrs. Ord-Mason, who is a Protestant. The priest refused to marry the couple, and then Mr. Donaldson announced through his friends and the Army and Navy Journal that he would be mar-ried by a Protestant minister in Wash-ington on June 4.

Ington on June 4. Mr. Donaldson held a consular posi-tion under President Cleveland and has since been in the employ of the navy department. He is a lawyer and an department. He is a lawyer and an expert accountant. At the marriage yesterday the bride was attended by her three daughters as bridesmaids, while the groom had his son, Walter A. Donaldson, jr., as his best man. The bride, who is the widow of Lieut. John Mason, U. S. A., was given away by Major T. B. True of the war department, acting for her brother, Captain E. O. C. Ord, who left for the Philippines a few days ago. Mrs. Donaldson, who is reputed to be wealthy, has documents in her pos-session to show that George IV, mar-ried Lady Fitzherbert and had a son by her who was sent to America by ried Lady Fitzherbert and had a son by her who was sent to America by one John Ord. In 1800 this boy entered Georgetown University at Washirgton as "James Ord, son of George IV, and Lady Fitzherbert." After graduation he entered the United States navy and later was transferred to the army. He married a Maryland woman and had eleven sons, of whom the elevet was General E. O. C. Ord. Three of Mrs. Donaldson's brothers entered the army and one of them was killed at San Juan.
