

ST. JOHN STAR, MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 1905.

ON TUESDAY MORNING
We Will Commence a Big
Sale of Ladies' Black
SATEEN UNDERSKIRTS.

Many ladies of St. John will recall the sale we had a year ago and remember with satisfaction the great bargains they got at that sale. This time the lot consists of assorted pieces, in all about 600 SKIRTS. The prices will run from 75c. to $2.00. We planned this sale six months ago, and had the goods made at the factory during the dull season. By patronizing this sale you effect a saving from 50c. to $1.00 on each skirt.

At 75c., made from fine Mercerised Fast Black Sateen, two dust ruffles, with cord heading on a nine-inch flounce.

At $1.00, made from very fine Fast Black Mercerised Sateen, three rows of ruffling on a wide flounce, good width in skirt. Sizes 38 to 42.

At $1.15, regular value $1.75, made from a soft finished Satinette, guaranteed fast black, finished with three rows of ruffles on a wide flounce, three sizes.

At $1.25, a very fine skirt, and a new style finished with a wide flounce, accordion plating and two rows of ruffling. Another style at this same price. Has four rows of ruffling on a wide flounce, and made from the same fast black Mercerised Sateen.

At $1.40, a very handsome skirt with six rows of ruffling, each row headed with cord, so as to keep the skirt well distended, underflounce. This is a skirt which is particularly attractive and will give the best of satisfaction. It is worth $2.00.

At $1.50, this skirt is made from the soft Satinette, has four rows of tucking on a wide flounce, accordion platted frills with dust ruffle over under flounce.

At $1.55. This is a skirt designed particularly to rest the outside skirt out. The upper ruffle which is very full and has a cording on the edge acts as a distender to the outside skirt. It is made from a very fine Sateen, and is thoroughly well made.

At $2.00. A very handsome style, made from the best Mercerised Sateen with three rows of ruffling on a 15-inch accordion platted flounce.

All the previous baptisms of the denomination have taken place in Coburg Street Christian church.

Every boy or girl, man or woman who can skate, will justly desire to be in the midst of something good to impersonate at Friday night's carnival. There are plenty of subjects that are food for fun making an event of this kind, and no doubt many will avail themselves of the best and rig up for the occasion. The forty dollars in gold will be given to the best skater of the evening. There is no telling who may be the lucky ones. Those who do not skate will see a spectacle well worth the price of admission.

MANAGER BOYLE'S PROMISE.

While in Halifax recently the Dawson City hockey team was banqueting by the Wanderers' Athletic Club, and during the course of a very able speech Mr. Boyle, manager of the Dawson team, made a promise which might interest some aspiring Canadian clubs. Mr. Boyle in commenting on the fact that his team had recently defeated at Ottawa and two other places, went on to explain some of the difficulties with which his players were forced to contend, and concluded by stating that though the Stanley cup could not be held out as an inducement, yet if any eastern club, the Ottawa preferred, would come out Dawson and play his team on their own ice, he would put up a much more valuable piece of silver, and moreover give the visiting team two months to rest and practice after they arrived, and in the event of their beating the Dawson team he would pay their entire expenses of the trip both to the Yukon and return. It is well known that Mr. Boyle is in a position to make good his offer at any time. The now celebrated Klondykers will meet the all-St. John team Wednesday evening in Queens Rink.

CANADA'S OPPORTUNITY.

It would be a pretty outcome of the difficulty between the Australian government and the Orient Pacific Steamship co. were Canada to become the fast main route between England and the Antipodes. With the magnificent new Canadian Pacific twenty-knot boats on the Atlantic—supplemented by the two new Allan Line steamers—the express service across the continent, and a fast service on the Pacific from Vancouver, the thing would be brought within reach with the help of joint British Canadian and Australian subsidies. The Orient Pacific would make $150,000 a year; the Australian government thinks the sum too much. We hope to hear more of the matter from Canada.—Canadian Gazette, London.

TOLD ONLY HALF.

The last issue of the Canadian Gazette, London, says: In the by-election for the vacant seat in the legislature for St. John county, James Lowell, Liberal, defeated M. E. Agar, Conservative, by a majority of about 400, thus reversing the result in the late Dominion election, when a Conservative was elected.

The Gazette's correspondent evidently forgot to add anything about Maxwell's majority over Skinner the same day.

The Boston train was one and a half hours late this morning and the Atlantic 50 minutes, due to a heavy track. The night express from Halifax, due here at 6:30 a. m., is eight hours late today. She is detained a short distance east of Springhill Junction by the engine of a freight having got off the track ahead of her.

LIQUOR VIOLATION
CASES SETTLED.

The Dealers Reported Will Obey The Law.

McCarthy and Caples Will Close Their Second Entrances and Mr Harding
Will Do as Inspector Wishes.

The charges of violating the Liquor License Act preferred by Inspector Jones against M. A. Harding, Main street; James McCarthy, Dock street; and W. J. Caples, Prince William street, licensed grocers, have been allowed to stand upon their promising future compliance with the law.

The three cases were taken up by Magistrate Ritchie this morning. The first to be dealt with was that of M. A. Harding. Only a few days ago Mr. Harding was charged with violating the Act by having lights burning in his place after ten o'clock and exculpated himself by proving that the lights were burning not for the purpose of facilitating the sale of liquor but to enable him to carry on his business as a restaurant keeper, which he conducted in connection with his saloon. Mr. Harding, by his legal adviser, Scott E. Morrill, undertook to have in the future both his saloon and restaurant closed promptly on Saturday nights at seven o'clock, and on other nights in the week to have his saloon closed at ten o'clock, securely locking the doors between it and the restaurant.

The charges against James McCarthy of having intercommunicating doors between his saloon and an adjoining store, in respect of which latter place he is the joint owner of a wholesale liquor license, was disposed of in the same way, Mr. McCarthy promising that the doors would be closed and no longer used as a means of communication between the two stores. As a matter of fact, Mr. McCarthy had some days ago the doors closed up, as, quoting his lawyer, S. E. Morrill, although he was an innocent violator of the law, it was his intention to give strict compliance with its provisions.

The third charge, that against W. J. Caples, of having two entrances to his saloon, was also similarly disposed of. Mr. Caples promised to close his second entrance, and best of all the inconvenience which its closing would entail. S. E. Ritchie presented his case.

Police Clerk Henderson, upon whom in case like these devolves the duty of prosecution, requested the magistrate, in view of the evident desire of the saloon keepers to conform to the law, to allow the charges to stand or else to impose the smallest penalty. The magistrate agreed to allow the cases to stand till next Monday to enable Inspector Jones to ascertain if both charges in court this morning. He declared that he was part owner of the barn into which he broke and ridiculed the charge of vagrancy. He was remanded.

CHARGED WITH BREAKING AND ENTERING.

Charles McCarthy Says He Was Part Owner of the Premises He Entered.

One, Charles McCarthy, was given in charge today by Joseph Riley, of Britton street, for breaking and entering the latter's barn. An additional charge against him is that of being a common vagrant. McCarthy vigorously denied both charges in court this morning. He declared that he was part owner of the barn into which he broke and ridiculed the charge of vagrancy. He was remanded.

FUNERALS TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Leahy took place at 8:30 this morning from the residence of her son-in-law, Hugh Dever, 35 Victoria street. Father Sullivan, C. S. R., conducted the funeral service at St. Peter's church. Interment took place at the Old Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of Jos. Clark, Dorchester street, will be held at three o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Graham officiating. The interment takes place at Fernhill cemetery.
