

ENJOYING THE BEST OF HEALTH

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured His Rheumatism

Prof. J. F. Davis

I want to say to the people of Toronto and elsewhere that "Fruit-a-tives" is my only medicine and has been for the last four years. Previous to that, I had been very much troubled with Rheumatism and Kidney Disease and had taken many remedies as well as employing hot applications of salt bags etc., without getting satisfactory results.

Noting the advertisement of "Fruit-a-tives," I adopted this treatment altogether and, as everybody knows, since taking "Fruit-a-tives," I have been enjoying the very best health and find it a pleasure to follow my vocation of Dancing and Department Instruction.

ternoon will become the bride of Horace Black. Mrs. Smith received her guests in a very handsome white gown and was assisted by the guest of honor, Miss Smith, who wore an exquisite imported hand-embroidered gown. The color scheme was most artistic and effective, being carried out in the drawing room in yellow and white spring flowers. Each guest was presented with a daintily tied up yellow and white parcel which contained a pair of gloves. A piece was given for the nearest sewing when finished. Then the guests adjourned to the dining room a slight long to be remembered greeted them—a regular Cupid's bowler, the mantles were banked with white sweet peas and smilax; the daintily appointed table with its choice linen cloth was round and from the chandelier was festooned white tulle with bunches of lily of the valley. The centre-piece was a handsome basket filled with white roses, while from the centre of the chandelier a string of Cupids descended to the basket of roses. The chair of the bride-to-be, was decorated with a huge bow of wide white satin ribbon. Her shoes were of heart shaped cups, while on the top were white cupid's slippers. A very handsome cake decorated with flowers was placed in front of the bride-to-be, who had to cut it and pass to her friends. All the confections were decorated, suggestive of the festive occasion. Mrs. Robert Murray, who presided over this pretty table, was gowned in a very handsome costume of white voile embroidered with blue and white beads and was assisted by Miss Beth Smith, who looked charming in light yellow and yellow silk with large black picture hat, trimmed with yellow and black daisies and Miss Roberts, who wore a very becoming gown of yellow satin with large white and yellow hat to match. Among the guests were: Mrs. Robert Travis, Miss Aubrey Bullock, Miss Gladys Bullock, Mrs. Pollard Lewin, Miss Ruth Flanders, Miss Helen Church, Miss Mabel Barbour.

Throat Becomes Diseased From Neglecting Colds

Than Catarrh Sets In, Mucous Drops Into the Stomach, Coughing, Headaches and Debility Follow.

That the best method of curing catarrhal disease consists in using Catarrhone is infinitely superior to rough medicines, tablets, sprays and emulsions, which for the most part are of no practical value except to ease the cough for the time being. Often liquid cough remedies contain opium, morphine and cocaine. With Catarrhone you take no drugs—you employ Nature's way—just inhale Catarrhone's soothing healing vapor and relief and cure follow promptly.

Weak Throat, Racking Cough Cured. "For five years I suffered from a severe bronchitis. A harsh, dry, racking cough kept my throat in a raw condition from one year's end to another. Before going to sleep at night I always had a bad attack, and in the morning before each breakfast I suffered greatly. My voice was harsh and raspy, and sometimes I found it difficult to make myself understood. Catarrhone seemed to soothe and heal from the first day. It cured me, and now I wouldn't think of being without a Catarrhone inhaler—it means life to me."

The above experience is related by Mr. Alexander F. Savary of Hamilton, Pa., and proves the effectiveness of Catarrhone, which will cure every cough, cold, bronchial or catarrhal attack. The dollar size of Catarrhone contains two months' treatment and is guaranteed. Smaller size 50c, sample size 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhone Company, Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Canada.

SEARCH IN RUINED ABBEY FOR LOST $20,000,000 WILL

British Chancery Mystery of 100 Years Ago Recalled by Mysterious Visit to Welsh Cemetery.

London, May 29.—A sensation has been caused in North Wales by the operations of mysterious visitors to the ruins of Valle Crucis Abbey, Llan-gollen, who are supposed to be searching for the will of Anthony Pritchard, whose vast estate, valued at £4,000,000, went into Chancery 100 years ago in the absence of a will or next-of-kin.

The will was supposed to have been left in the custody of a caretaker named Jones, but after Pritchard's death it mysteriously disappeared, and claimants to the estate have been hunting for it ever since.

Some years ago the grave of the caretaker, Jones, who appears to have exercised a weird fascination over Pritchard during his life, was twice dug up at midnight, and the coffin was searched for the will that was alleged to have been buried with the body. No will, however, was found.

Visitors, accompanied by London solicitors, have from time to time appeared at Llan-gollen and the coffin was searched for the will that was alleged to have been buried with the body. No will, however, was found.

The custodian said that since Easter a number of secret visits have been paid to the enclosure by known people, sometimes in the early morning and sometimes late at night but always during the absence of the guardians of the place and the historic treasures it contains.

The visits are not likely to be repeated without official sanction, for an effective cordon of watchers has been established. In the neighborhood of the abbey, one of whom was a very old resident, stated that before the abbey was enclosed as a show place the chapter house was the living room of a large farmstead, where it is understood, relatives of Jones, the caretaker, at Llan-gollen, lived and some stated that Jones frequently visited the abbey at night. It is thought that he may have concealed documents under the floor of the chapter house, and it is asserted that certain documents on which the claim to the millions is based bear indications of having been kept for a considerable time in a damp place and under conditions similar to those obtaining under the chapter house floor.

Whether anything has been discovered or not is not known, but the principal claimant, who some years ago asserted that her case was all but complete, has, after a long stay, suddenly left the locality.

The Understudy of the Sun McClary's Sunshine Furnace

WHEN Old Sol swings low and far away he appoints an understudy for the purpose of keeping Jack Frost where he belongs—Outside.

Years ago McClary's "Sunshine" Furnace, by reason of its marvelous heating capacity and the balmy June air it suffused the house with, was specially appointed Understudy to the Sun. That appointment has been confirmed year after year, and your "Sunshine" Furnace—Jack Frost's Master awaits your orders for the coming winter.

Remember the past winter—the Frost King was very active—He battered us with a three months' siege of snow and ice—Almost conquered the thermometer by chasing the mercury out of sight. But he failed to penetrate thousands of homes, because the Understudy of the Sun—McClary's "Sunshine" Furnace—was on the job in the cellars of these homes.

It's easy to keep Jack Frost at a safe distance with the "Sunshine" Furnace. He may storm and rave outside, but there is no place for him within—because, the Understudy of the Sun has demonstrated its mastery in the home.

SUBJECTS.

There's the whole great world to write about With all of its joy and pain, The things we love and we fight about. The fun and the loss or gain. There are themes of endless variety. Numberless themes to treat, Politics, trade, society, The bitter, the kind, the sweet. There are plenty of things to sing about. Wherever you chance to look, For life seems fairly to fling about. Subjects to fill a book. The song of the souls victorious, The songs of the failures, too, Things ignoble or glorious, The false as well as the true. There are themes so multifarious That nobody knows them all, Matters that soothe or hurry us, Winter and spring and fall: A million themes to be bright about (It's easy when you know how) There are plenty of things to write about. But I cannot recall them now! They used to have knockers on the front door. Now they have 'em all over the house.

Field-work however, is heavy-work and only a well fortified system can long withstand the strain; this is why farmers should rely on
