

SPRING STYLES AND FASHIONS THE PRINCIPAL ATTRACTIONS ON EASTER SUNDAY.

For weeks and months women everywhere have been busily engaged in preparing their spring wardrobe. Easter Sunday is always the day for the great display of these new styles and fancies of fashion. In the larger cities rows of tailors are often seen on the main thoroughfares taking note of the newest styles as the throngs of both wealthy and poor pass by in their new spring gowns.

TROUBLED WITH KIDNEYS COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR.

It is hard for a woman to look after her household duties when she is suffering from a weak and aching back, for no woman can be strong and well when the kidneys are out of order.

The weak, lame and aching back common to all women should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from the kidney trouble which is sure to follow if the back is neglected.

On the first sign of a pain in the back, Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go right to the seat of the trouble.

Mrs. Joseph Throp, Upper Point De Bute, N.B., writes: "I cannot speak too well of Doan's Kidney Pills. For two years I was so tired, I was a burden and I got up more tired than when I went to bed, and my back was so lame I could hardly straighten up. I took different kinds of medicine, but none of them did me any good until a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and to-day I don't know what it is to be tired and my lame back is all gone. I can recommend them to any person suffering with lame back and that terrible tired feeling."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering direct specify "Doan's."

"AIRSHIPITIS" UPSETS NERVES OF SO CALLED STOLID RACE

England Cannot Quite Get Over the Scare She Has Had in Regard to Tales of Hostile German Military Air Craft Hovering Over Her Coast and Her Home Giblaltars.

New York, N. Y., March 19.—England is suffering from another bad attack of "airshipitis," which is another word for "nerves." Every day for the last fortnight the newspapers have been full of stories, communicated by "eye witnesses," of strange apparitions in the air, of airships with red lights, green lights, searchlight, and starboard lights.

North, south, east and west these ghostly visitants have been watched with open mouths and scared eyes. The same nervous cry has been raised as a year or two ago that they were German Zeppelins spying the land, and the government was soundly denounced for not taking up the matter with Germany and asking for an explanation.

But the government has been away enjoying itself, every member of it recuperating on the continent, leaving the government of the country to the suffragettes, which they have been accomplishing by pillage, plunder and incendiarism.

As the excitement grew "experts" sought to prove by long discourses in the newspapers that a Zeppelin had visited England upon a certain night. They noted the hour at which it had been reported in Berlin to have left its base, steering in the direction of the North Sea, and when it returned, estimating that the time required for the voyage was just sufficient to complete a flight and pass over that part of England at which it had been observed.

At first Germany laughed; then she got angry and wanted to know why the British government did not contradict the silly stories. It was said in the German official newspapers that no Zeppelin could undertake a flight across the North Sea to England and return between sunset and sunrise. Nor could any useful purpose be served by a night flight; nor, if such were the case, would a hostile airship reveal its presence with port and starboard lights.

Another more moderate view is that the airships are smugglers, risking their lives for commercial ends, it already having been admitted that the question of smuggling by air may take the place that smuggling by sea once occupied, with the necessity for a new type of excitement. At present,
