

Social Notes of the Week

Mrs. Guy F. Randolph gave a delightful afternoon tea at the Sign of the Lantern tea room on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Le Cocq. Among the guests were Mrs. Courland Robinson, Mrs. Elinor Alward, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. P. Burchill, Miss Alayne Starr and Miss Pauline Powell.

Among the decorations for gallantry and distinguished service awarded Canadian officers lately was a Military Cross to Lieut. William Wolsey Raymond, Engineer, son of Mr. William E. Raymond of the Royal Hotel, who made a personal and thorough investigation of a town under attack.

On Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock at St. Luke's church the Rev. R. P. McKinnon united in marriage Mr. J. Bruce McPherson and Miss Gladys Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Hann of 188 Douglas Avenue. The bride wore a becoming costume of blue broadcloth with hat to match.

The full maturing of nature's yearly cycle of life is at hand; the shortening days, the yellow light, the blue haze in all the air, as though the sky had fallen down upon the earth, the short meadows, the golden harvest of grain, the ripened fruit loading the bending trees, the leaves of the forest falling one by one silently through the sunny air till they cover the earth as with sunned clouds. How such scenes as these are conjured up by the waving of the gold-tipped wand—the golden rod.

The field day of the Natural History Society was held, through the kindness of Mrs. John A. McAvity, at her summer residence at Lakeside, last Saturday. Those fortunate enough to be present enjoyed the beauties of the surrounding country and listened to several splendid addresses during the afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served and the party returned to the city on the evening train after a most delightful outing.

Capt. D. B. Weldon, formerly lieutenant in the 112th Battalion, and stationed for some time in St. John, has been promoted to be staff officer of the 112th Battalion, and will leave for England on Monday.

A wedding of much interest to friends in St. John took place on Tuesday at Halifax, where Miss Charlotte Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin, was united in marriage to Mr. Norman Randolph Desbriens, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Desbriens, of Bathurst, district passenger agent of the C. P. R. No invitations were issued for the ceremony, but the church was filled with friends and interested spectators. The ceremony was performed by His Grace the Archbishop, assisted by the Dean and by Rev. J. L. Foster, rector of Hubbard's.

The bride, who was unstudied, was given away by her brother, Mr. Frank Worell, and looked charming in her wedding gown of white satin, with bouquets of silver, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Desbriens drove to Bishop's Lodge, where an informal reception was held for the family and most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Desbriens left by the 10 o'clock train for Quebec, whence they will go to New York. The bride's travelling suit was of brown cloth trimmed with white fur. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Desbriens will occupy the residence of Dr. T. Scott Rydell, Carmarthen street.

Mrs. G. E. S. Keator entertained informally at the tea hour at her residence, Cornhill street, on Tuesday in honor of Mrs. George McLeod of Picton. Mrs. E. T. Sturges presided at the prettily appointed tea table. Among the guests were Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. John McMillan, Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Mrs. Harold Lawrence, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. J. S. McLaren and Mrs. James Jack.

An event which has been anticipated with much pleasure was the bridge given at the Cliff Club on Wednesday afternoon by the DeMolles Chapter, I. O. O. F., the proceeds from which will be devoted to buying Christmas cheer for the boys in the trenches. The day was ideal and the affair was a great success financially and socially. The guests were received on the club house verandah by Mrs. F. E. Sayre and Mrs. Walter Foster. The markers on the twenty-five bridge tables were Union Jacks and the score cards also were symbolic of patriotism. The prizes were of a distinctly novel character and were much appreciated by the lucky winners, who in their order chose their own prize from eight attractive silver baskets containing seasonal extravaganzas such as chickens, eggs, vegetables and canned fruits. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. William Hadden, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Frederick C. MacNeill, Miss Edith Skinner, Mrs. H. Powell, Miss Beatrice Feney, Mrs. J. S. McLaren and Miss Frances Travers.

At the tea hour delicious refreshments were served by the members of the chapter. Among the many present were Mrs. Ward Hadden, Mrs. Rathbone, Mrs. Elinor Alward, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. P. Burchill, Miss Alayne Starr and Miss Pauline Powell.

Miss Dora Bishop who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mansel Shaw, at Sussex, spent Friday in St. John the guest of Mrs. G. E. S. Keator en route to her home in Montreal.

In order to do their share and help send comforts to the men in the trenches at Christmas Miss Phyllis Barker, Miss Constance White and the Misses Branscombe are holding a bazaar at the Soldiers' Club. These little women are anxious to help and their patriotic effort will be recognized in a substantial way by their group of friends.

Mrs. Kenneth Cameron is visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cameron, at their home in Ottawa where Lieut. Cameron is stationed at present.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Sept. 21.—The afternoon tea at the Red Cross on Tuesday was Mr. John H. Thomson and Mrs. William J. Davidson. A committee from the society have been appointed to try and aid interest and secure more regular helpers, by asking for pledges of certain amount of work to be done by individuals each month just as each shall feel able to promise. Cut out garments and wool for knitting are always on hand and can be had at any of the meetings on Tuesday and Friday of each week. The need is great and the privilege to help free to all.

Word has been received here today, Thursday, that Edward Kirkpatrick, (Teddy), son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, had been wounded in action. No particulars were given. Surely the war is being brought home to Rothesay in a very real sense. Teddy is a real Rothesay boy, was born and brought up here and went to the front at the beginning of the war. Heats of friends will hope for further news, and that it may be good.

Last Saturday's tennis tea hostesses were Mrs. George McAvity, Mrs. McAvity, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. John McIntyre and Mrs. John M. Robinson. It has been decided to discontinue these teas for the rest of the season.
