WEDDINGS

Snowball-Bronkley. Chatham, Sept. 4—A social event of more than usual interest took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bronkley, when their eldest daughter, Allison, was united in marriage to Frederick Lawrence Snowball, second son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Snowball. The bride was given away by her father, and as she entered the room the wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Alice Marvin. The house was decorated with pink and white sweet peas and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Mr. H. S. B. Stoddard under a host of white flowers which hung from an arch of evergreens decked with white tapers. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of navy blue serge with grey braided vest and hat to match. She wore a fox fur, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The gift of the groom to Miss Marvin was a diamond bar pin set in platinum. After the ceremony luncheon was served. The table was arranged with pink and white chiffon and smiles. Luncheon over, the happy couple left on an auto trip through the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island. On their return they will reside in Chatham. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents of silver, gold, and china. Only immediate relatives and a few friends were present at the ceremony. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jennings, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dickson, St. John; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sargeant, St. John; Miss Shannon, Moncton; Miss Nellie Robinson, Moncton; Miss Sarah and David Ritchie, Nova Scotia.

SUMMER COMPLAINT IS A SERIOUS BOWEL TROUBLE

Very few people escape an attack of Summer Complaint. It may be slight, or it may be severe, but nearly everyone is liable to it. You can't tell when it seizes on you, how it may end. Allow the profuse diarrhoea, the vomiting and purging to continue for a day or two and you will become weak and prostrated. Just as soon as the bowels become loosened up, get a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and check these unnatural movements, and thus prevent the system from becoming weakened. Mrs. J. J. Aileen, wife of the well-known wholesale and retail Fish Dealer, 44 Hill Street, Amherst, N. S. writes:—I have four children, the oldest being eight years old. Every summer they were troubled with Summer Complaint. Doctors' prescriptions did not seem to help them any. One day a friend asked me to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I at once got a bottle, and to my surprise and wonder, I soon saw a change in them. I now keep a bottle of it in the house all the time, and will recommend it to any mother. "Dr. Fowler's" is a bottle. Get the original, which has been put on the market for the past 14 years by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HEAVY PASSENGER TRAVEL ON G. N. R. LINES.

Passenger travel is remarkably heavy on all sections of Canadian National Railway Lines, and particularly so in the Eastern section where trains between St. John, Halifax, Sydney and Montreal are every day filled to capacity. The popularity of the Maritime Express and Ocean Limited is amply demonstrated by the many applications for sleeping car reservations on these well equipped through trains. Requests for space are so numerous that extra cars are being carried and often trains run in two sections. With the rush of travel from troops returning from Europe and the pleasure arriving at Halifax and Quebec this means considerable of a strain on the railway for equipment. Passenger business which has been very brisk all summer is likely to continue lively through the fall.

Items Concerning the Live Questions of the Day Under Consideration by the People. Problems for Parliament. Toronto Mail and Empire.—If in the present session members let their tongues run away with them it will not be because there is not work for their brains and their consciences to occupy themselves with. Extremely important questions of the hour present themselves. Now that the gratuity of the returned men has run its limit for most of them, what is proposed? The question is one that is up to the Government, but it is also up to every member of Parliament. If the returned men were all back on a good earning footing the government and the country might with some reason feel that the ending of the gratuity coincided with the ending of the returned men's needs. But that is not so. As winter approaches all in authority are admonished that measures are required to help very many returned men to tide over that trying season. The Great War Veterans' Association has given much thought to the problem and has made some recommendations. That its advice is the best both for the soldiers and the country we are not prepared to say, but we do say without hesitation that the returned soldiers must have the strong support of the state until they are put on their feet. Of course, the cost of living is the vital problem, the one to which Parliament should keep its moral and intellectual force applied until profligacy is eradicated and the square deal has been assured to wage-earners as well as to everybody else. The government, armed with powers conferred upon it in the last session, has put its hand to this task and we hope it will turn out to be no weak hand. The new Board of Commerce is expected to show itself a power for good on the side of the victims of exploiters of the necessities of life. The case of the western farmers whose crops have been ruined by adverse conditions cannot escape the attention of parliament. The country must be ready to stand by the industrious inhabitants who, though they till and sow, and without neither their labor nor their seed, have the heart-breaking experience of having

Mr. Fielding Shows Spite.

Ottawa Journal.—The exchange between Mr. Fielding and the Prime Minister was of a somewhat belittling character. The member for Queens-Shelburne, who appeared in the seat of the first lieutenant of the House Leader of the Opposition, appeared to indicate that the summing of parliament to ratify the treaty was nothing but a pompous farce, and that it didn't matter ainker's curse whether we ratified it or threw it into the waste-paper basket. This, coming after a speech by the Prime Minister in which he laid great emphasis upon the status which Canada had achieved at the conference, plainly angered Sir Robert, and a sharp exchange in which the government leader appeared to score, followed. The net result of the encounter was that the house adjourned until Thursday to give the opposition time to study the treaty and documents connected with it. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King is busy "interpreting" and "reservating" the platform built for him to stand on. No, Hon. W. S. Fielding could not have swallowed the Laurier-Liberal platform in his paper he remarks, apropos of the large powers given to the new Board of Commerce, that if they are not administered with sound judgment they may easily cause much annoyance to legitimate business while giving no actual relief to the consuming public. His side that "one duty of the new Board of Commerce call for as large a degree of wisdom as is required in the highest courts in the Dominion." What do the Laurier-Liberal intent only on getting into office care about "legitimate business"? The Refuge. J. H. Barnham, M. P., announces that he will sit on the cross benches with the other cross legislators. Contemptible Politics. The Lindsay Ward—Harley Dewar, provincial Liberal leader, is resorting to low politics when he continues his campaign of slander and innuendo. His latest statement that the Healey government had instructed crumblers to leave out names they knew to be disposed to temperance, is contemptible to say the least. Dewar's make-up seems to be complete with false charges and libellous assertions.

THE LABOR FAIR. The attendance at the Labor Fair in St. Andrew's rink last evening was the best yet, and the attractions for the evening provided a great deal of amusement. The tented show surpassed all expectations, and those who took in the feature confessed they had not laughed so immoderately for a long time. A monkey and a company of mice did some amusing stunts on a series of trapezes, while the three headed mummy and the wonderful Zeco caused several sensations of various kinds. For the money the show was calculated to give the spectators considerable relief from the high cost of living. On Saturday afternoon, when special attractions will be put on for the children, it is expected that the children from the Orphan Asylum at Silver Falls will be given an opportunity to see the Fair. Several prominent men have offered the use of their automobiles to carry the orphans to and fro, and a committee has been appointed to see that they have a good time while at the fair. Last evening the Temple Band was in attendance and furnished an enjoyable programme of music. This evening the G. W. V. Band will be in attendance. The door prize was won by ticket No. 1922.
