Berlin, Sept. 21.—The monthly survey of Germany's economic situation, compiled by government experts, shows a further measure of conditions in the iron and steel industry.

The iron and steel industry is the only one of which anything can be said to have improved.

It is the iron and steel industry

DANZIG GREAT EMIGRATION PORT OF EUROPE

Thousands Passing Through it Bound for America—Jews Mainly.

By MAURICE LANGE.

(Copyright 1920, by Cross Atlantic.)

Danzig, Sept. 23.—Danzig has become the most frequent emigration port of Eastern Europe. Before the war Polish and Russian emigrants for

United States ports sailed from Hamburg, Bremen, Stettin or Antwerp.

Danzig never saw an emigrant. Owing to passport difficulties in Germany, and aided by practical arrangements,

Danzig has taken the lead. A large camp known as the Tyrol, which during the war was used for housing

5,000 Russian prisoners, has now become the sleeping place for the United States, where countless emigrants are temporarily housed.

The arrangements for their comfort are unimproved, comfortable basis shelter them. Store rooms, administrative buildings, restaurants, post and telegraph offices, infirmaries—everything is provided for; and the sanitary arrangements are fully up-to date. Nor is the disinfection of the future United States citizens—a necessary precaution—neglected. The whole camp is airy and compares favourably with the former Emigrants' Detention Houses of Germany.

Jews in Majority.

The current of emigration has assumed large dimensions, owing to the upheaval and economic conditions in Russia and Poland. The majority of the inmates of the camp are women and children whose husbands and fathers preceded them and are now able to send the passage money. The percentage of Jews is overwhelming, for whether under Bolshevik or Polish rule the history of Jewry in the east is up to the present day a never-ending tragedy of suffering and persecution.

Organized help on a lavish scale by two American societies, the "Hias"

(Hebrew Immigration Aid Society) and "The Joint Distribution Committee of America," is working wonders.

Their simple means and business-like arrangements have created ideal conditions which are highly appreciated by the camp officials.

Every contingency has been considered. The American Consul has an office on the spot to examine pas-ports; Steamship Companies have their branch offices in the camp; markets and shops supply all necessities at controlled prices; repairing tailors and shoemakers give their services
