Minister Opposes N. B. Railroad

House is Told That Centre-ville-Andover Line Would Not Pay Expenses.

Ottawa, Ont., April 15.—Considerable discussion ensued in the House this afternoon on the second reading of the bill to authorize an extension of time to complete the St. John and Quebec Railway between Centreville and Andover, N. B. The minister of railways and canals said he had taken this matter up some years since and had been informed that so far as local earnings were concerned it would not pay to complete the road, especially in view of the fact that the C. P. R. line was already serving the section. For a long way the C. P. R. would parallel this railway. Dr. Bold was, in any case, unfavorable to the construction of any further railroads at this time.

T. W. Caldwell (Victoria and Car-

tion of the road's value as a local system. It was important in order to link up the I. C. R. with the G. T. P. With this connecting link constructed, the section already built might earn a profit. Extensive pulp and paper mills were going up at Grand Falls, and perhaps the deficit was attributed to the fact that this important point was not served by the St. John and Quebec Railway.

HUDSON

Not Enough Hudsons

Super-Six Still Holds Exclusive Position

Hudson shortage is a fact. Buyers know it. Instead of immediate deliveries an increasing number find they must wait.

Total stocks of Hudsons, everywhere in the country, average less than two cars per dealer.

Our own spring demand must be met from such small stocks as we had the foresight to get during the slack season past.

Note What You Save

Now we see better than ever before what hold Hudson quality has among motor car users.

The present market is selective. Hence the emphasis of Hudson value. Its cost advantage gives $1000 or more saving against any car to which you compare Hudson quality, reliability and performance.

Perhaps you hold Hudson the greatest of all cars. Surely, in many respects, you acknowledge this is so.

For instance the Super-Six motor. It is exclusive to Hudson. For five years it has been the master type. No other has been developed to match its efficiency and endurance. It practically annihilates vibration. The smoothness which results is appreciated not only in riding ease. It means absence of strain, and friction. Repair freedom and a long life car results. It accounts for Hudson's five years of sales leadership.

And if you plan to buy soon, bear in mind that deliveries are already difficult and stocks must be even more limited as the season progresses.

SISTER OF LORD FRENCH SOON BE SINN FEIN ALLY

Mrs. Charlotte Despard to Take Active Part in Irish Politics.

POSSIBLY WILL RUN FOR PARLIAMENT

Her Championship Adds Picturesque Figure to Republican Movement.

By MARY HENKE
(Copyright 1921, By Public Ledger.)
London, April 15.—A picturesque figure will be added to the movement in Ireland when Mrs. Charlotte Despard, sister of Lord French, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, takes up her residence in Cork. Mrs. Despard will supervise the feeding of school children in Ireland and will take part in any political activities where she feels that she can be of service.

A stately old lady with snow-white hair and a sweet smile, Mrs. Despard is one of the most-loved women in Ireland. She has two of the most marked virtues of her country courage and a generous sympathy for the unfortunate. For years she has lived in London, devoting her time to the poor of the city. Her home here is in a poor little street near a settlement supported by English suffragists. She is known to working men and women all over England. Her entrance at any public meeting is the signal for a demonstration.

Supports Sinn Fein
She states flatly that she is a Sinn Fein. Audiences over England are stirred to almost Irish enthusiasm by her recital of Irish history. She often tells how, although she was reared and educated in England, her love of the Irish people and knowledge of her own Irish origin led her to study the history of her country and to identify herself with the Sinn Fein movement when it was a literary and artistic movement headed by men like the poet Yeats and George Russell.

Her decision to take up her residence in Ireland resulted from her knowledge of the needs of the women and children there.

"Babies are being born on hill-sides and ditches," she declared, "young mothers and children are dying of exposure. The feeding of school children has been stopped, and the children are starving and underfed."

Mrs. Despard declares her conviction that in spite of the dangers and misery to which they have been subjected Irish women are as strongly rebels as their men.

"Women were elected at the last Sinn Fein elections," she said, "and many more will be elected at the next."

It is very probable that if the Sinn Fein decides to contest the elections to be held under the Home Rule Act, Mrs. Despard will be one of the candidates.

Before large English audiences Mrs. Despard defends the activities of the Sinn Fein.

"The treatment of women in Ireland is making their men desperate. It is human nature and it is man nature. If the men were withdrawn from there would be absolute order in Ireland. What are called ambushes are episodes in guerrilla warfare."

"I feel the need to defend murder. But the unstarved murders which have been carried out according to plan in Ireland are the work of desperate men driven into secret societies. They have absolutely nothing to do with the Sinn Fein."

Her relationship to the Irish victory gives her access to officials usually closed from the public. She had absolute proof, she said, of the innocence of the man Whelan who has hanged in Dublin, and she presented these proofs to Dublin Castle, but they were ignored.

At an interview which she quoted Sir Nevill McCready, in charge of the troops in Ireland, told her that he had absolutely no control over the "Black and Tans."

Thankful Mothers

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she would use nothing else. The Tablets give such results that the mother has nothing but words of praise and thankfulness for them. Among the thousands of mothers throughout Canada who praise the Tablets is Mrs. David A. Anderson, New Glasgow, N. S., who writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and from my experience I would not be without them. I would urge every other mother to keep a box of the Tablets in the house. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach; drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it: its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paragoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee.
