The Rev. Dr. STURGE read prayers.

His Lordship the PRESIDENT then briefly stated the object of the meeting, read from the IX Standing Rule the objects of the Institution, and, after announcing the gratifying intelligence that His Excellency the Lieut. Governor had consented to become the Patron of the Society, called upon the Assistant Secretary to read the following REPORT.

THE General Committee of the DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY OF NOVA-SCOTIA, in welcoming the members and friends of the Society to the celebration of its Sixth Anniversary, beg to present their Annual Report of the operations, the means, and the expenditure of the Society during the year now past.

It is with feelings of sincere gratification, and, they trust, of devout gratitude to God, that this Committee are enabled to assure their brethren from the various Local Committees, and those members and friends resident in the city, that, in its quiet and unostentatious course, the Society has been promoting the spread of the ministrations of the Gospel, furthering the Education of Candidates for the Sacred Ministry, aiding in the erection of buildings to be set apart for the worship and service of the Lord, assisting by grants of Books and otherwise the usefulness of Day and Sunday Schools, and, in such other ways as come within their sphere, contributing to the advancement of the cause of Christ and of His Church.

The Committee have received with much satisfaction from their brethren in various parts of the Province, and hope that each of their Clerical friends as are present this evening will be able to confirm, the assurance of the importance of this Society as a bond of union among the members of their flocks, and the testimony of the value of its aid in promoting various objects of present and permanent benefit to the interests of the Church and to the cause of Religion in the Diocese. Such testimonies,
