POWERS STILL WONDERING HOW TO PUNISH CHINA

London, Sept. 25, 3.20 a. m.—A semi-official announcement has been issued in St. Petersburg that the European cabinets are engaged in an endeavor to induce Germany to abandon her demand for the surrender of the instigators of the anti-foreign outrages as a preliminary to peace negotiations...

FRANCE'S REPLY.

Paris, Sept. 24.—France's reply to Germany's note making the possession of the instigators of the Chinese troubles a preliminary to peace negotiations is not entirely an acceptance of the proposition. France argues that punishment is necessary, but would negotiate under certain conditions without first punishing the guilty officials...

STORY OF MISSIONARIES WHO FLED TO THE NORTH.

London, Sept. 24.—Mr. Williams, the American missionary who has worked in China for 31 years, gave a representative of the Associated Press an interesting story of his experience during the siege of Peking. It appears that the first assault on the mission compound at Canton was made during the night of June 19, when a yelling mob attempted to batter down the gate with stones...
