

GOOD REPORTS FROM ANGLICAN CHURCHES; ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Tuesday, April 6. Anglican churches of the city held their Easter meetings last evening, choosing officers and delegates to synod and receiving the annual reports. Reference was made in several of the churches to the number of members volunteering for active service, and St. John (Stone) church had printed in the annual report the names of thirty-five members on the roll of honor. The Mission church of St. John the Baptist decided to pay the same honor to its volunteers on foreign service, and also voted to endow a bed in the Duchess of Cornwall Hospital. Reference was also made to the fact that the church is in a healthy condition. The reports invariably told of larger work in the churches and on practically all cases increased membership and larger receipts for the year.

EQUIPPING WARD FOR OUR WOUNDED --WHAT IS NEEDED

All New Brunswickers Interested Should Read This—How to Make Contributions and How the Money Will Help Our Brave Wounded.

To the Editor of The Telegraph. Sir—Not only St. John but all New Brunswick must feel pleased and gratified that a New Brunswicker man has been selected as chief of the largest hospital that Canada has given to the war. This hospital is at Etaples, France, and I am sure that it will gladden many anxious hearts to know that wounded New Brunswickers will come under the skillful care of Dr. Murray MacLaren. The people of New Brunswick have now an excellent opportunity to show their interest and appreciation by equipping a New Brunswicker ward that will in every way be worthy of the Province. The "Brunswick" Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, is merely the collecting agency for this worthy cause and, while its members are working and will continue to work and do all they can to make the undertaking a thorough success, they feel that uncollected contributions should be freely forthcoming; for so long as this war continues we have no right to withhold our hands; we must give ourselves for the sake of the soldiers who so freely offer their lives. Fifty dollars are required to equip one bed. Surely this greatly blessed Province of New Brunswick will not hesitate to guarantee a ward of at least fifty beds.

Contributions sent to the secretary, Mrs. J. H. Allingham, Fairville, or to the treasurer, Mrs. Hetherington, Provincial Hospital, will be gladly received and acknowledged. Yours, etc., SARA B. TRAVERS, Regent Brunswick Chapter 1, O. D. E. Fairville (N. B.), April 8, 1915.

P. S.—Any society or town donating one or more beds has the privilege of naming these beds, i. e. the name of the society or town may be placed over the bed.—S. B. T.

ALLEGED VICTIM IN ALBERT POISONING CASE TESTIFIES. (Special to The Telegraph.) Hopewell Cape, N. B., April 8.—Several witnesses were examined today in the Downing poisoning case and at the close of court, Johnson the husband, the intended victim of the poisoning conspiracy, as alleged, was still on the stand. His evidence was practically the same as given at the preliminary examination, recounting his marital troubles and the illness he suffered after eating canned peas. It was in this that Mrs. Johnson, at the preliminary examination, said she had put Paris green at the instigation of the accused Downing.

Johnson will be cross-examined tomorrow. Other witnesses today corroborated the fact of Johnson's illness. Chief Ridout, of Moncton, was on the stand in connection with the confession of Mrs. Johnson and the arrest of the accused and M. V. Padlock, chemist of St. John, gave evidence as having identified a liquid found in Downing's shop as poison. The trial is liable to occupy several days. Downing yesterday pleaded not guilty on every count.

The funeral services were held at Christ church on Easter Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and were conducted by the rector, Ven. Archdeacon Newham. Interment was in the Porter lot in the rural cemetery and the bearers were J. Wells Fraser, Rev. Charles Healey, C. H. Read and Lewis Mills. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. Mary E. Justason. Pennfield Centre, April 5.—This community lost a respected member on the 3rd inst. in the death from heart failure of Mrs. Mary E. Justason, who had been the widow of Deacon W. H. Justason, of the Pennfield Baptist church, and had been a member of this church continuously for fifty years. Until her short illness commenced she seldom missed a preaching service or a session of the Sunday school and her sudden removal creates a vacancy that will not soon be filled. Next of kin, Mrs. Justason, all children, three sons and two daughters, survive her. The funeral took place on Monday, the 6th inst., at the Pennfield church, where she was laid to rest in the presence of many friends, the service being conducted by the pastor, A. F. Brown.
