The same being again read by the Clerk,

On motion of the Honorable Mr. Allan, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Pelletier, it was Ordered, That the said amendments be agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk do go down to the House of Commons, and acquaint that House that the Senate doth agree to the amendments made to the last mentioned Bill without any amendment.

The House, according to Order, proceeded to the consideration of the Message from the House of Commons disagreeing to the first amendment made by the Senate to the Bill intituled: "An Act further to amend the Fisheries Act," and

The same being again read by the Clerk,

On motion of the Honorable Sir Alexander Campbell, seconded by the Honorable Mr. Plumb, it was

Resolved, That this House doth insist on their first amendment to the Bill intituled: "An Act further to amend 'The Fisheries Act,'" "

1. Because it is unreasonable to require the owner of a right to pay for using it.

2. Because if any additional benefit (such as protection) is, or should be conferred upon the owner of a right, a separate charge might be made for it;—and

3. Because it is incorrect to affirm that it is not compulsory upon Riparian owners (there is nothing in the Bill or the amendment in regard to special or other Grantees of the French Crown), to take out Licenses, since by the sub-section to Clause 2 it is made unlawful for every one without exception to fish with nets, or other apparatus, for salmon.

Ordered, That the said Resolution be communicated to the House of Commons by one of the Masters in Chancery.

The House was adjourned during pleasure.

After some time the House was resumed.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons by their Clerk in the following words:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
WEDNESDAY, 23rd May, 1883.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate informing their Honors that this House hath passed an Address to His Excellency the Governor General, expressing the desire of this House, on behalf of those whom we represent as well as on our own, to give expression to the general feeling of regret with which the Country has learned that His Excellency's official connection with Canada is soon about to cease; and that we are, however, happy to believe that in the Council of the Empire in the future, and whenever opportunity enables him to render her service, Canada will ever
