
The British North America Act.

tained at such census) as the number sixty-five bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained) :

- (3.) In the computation of the number of Members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one half of the whole number requisite for entitling the province to a Member shall be disregarded ; but a fractional part exceeding one half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number :
- (4.) On any such re-adjustment the number of Members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding re-adjustment of the number of Members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest census to be diminished by one twentieth part or upwards :
- (5.) Such re-adjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

52. The number of Members of the House of Commons may be, from time to time, increased by the Parliament of Canada, provided the proportionate representation of the Provinces prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed.
