C.W.U.A.A. PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Wayde Bucsis, a freshman forward with the University of Saskatchewan Huskies, is the Canada West Player of the Week for the week ending October 29, 1989. Bucsis, a native of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan scored three goals and five assists for eight points in the Huskies home-and-home sweep of the University of Regina Cougars. The eight points gives the 6'1", 185 pound Arts & Science student first place in the Canada West scoring race with 16 points on eight goals and eight assists, one point ahead of Adam Morrison of Alberta. Bucsis scored 2-2-4, including the game-winning goal, in Friday's 5-4 Saskatchewan win and then added his second four-point game of the weekend with one goal and three assists on Saturday.
