

PAGE BLURRED
PAGE BARBOUILLÉE

-5-

C216650

in our national history. I am confident that our people at home will sustain their efforts by a willing acceptance of the burdens and privations and by a ready response to the demands for even greater exertions without which our country cannot put forth its utmost effort.

In inviting your careful consideration to the important matters which will engage your attention, I pray that Divine Providence may guide and bless your deliberations.