APRIL ANECDOTES.

GOOD REASON FOR CRYING.

Among the early lawyers of Missouri were Judge James C—— and Gen. John C——, brothers, both excellent lawyers and splendid advocates. Gen. John, when occasion required, closed his argument to the jury bathed in tears himself, with most of the jury and audience weeping, too.

One day he and Judge James were trying a case, James prosecuting and John defending. James made his speech, a strong one for his side of the case, and ended with telling the jury:

"Gentlemen, my brother John will next address you on the other side of the case; and I want to caution you, he will cry and try to make you cry. He does it in all his cases."

Gen. John then spoke to the jury, making one of the very best of his pathetic appeals, causing jury and audience to forget James' admonition; and as tears were freely flowing, John, with great drops rolling down his cheeks, said to the jury:

"My brother Jim told you I would cry; I am crying; and, gentlemen of the jury, if you had such a darned mean brother as Jim, you would cry, too."

John's client was acquitted.

R. A. Koon: "Didn't yer guarantee dis yah watch fo' a yeah?" Jeweller: "Yes, but not against accidents." R. A. Koon: "Den you gib me a new one. I busted it obah Sam Johnsing's head, an' dat wa'nt no accident, sah; I done hit a puhpose."

MILBURN'S Beef, Iron and Wine is a health-restoring and agreeable tonic.

A GENTLEMAN was once going over the docks at Liverpool when he saw a sailor throwing some crockery at a Chinaman. He expostulated with the seaman and asked for an explanation.

"Well, sir," said Jack, "this beggar has been insulting me in broken English, and I am retaliating in broken China."
