The man in his carriage remarked to his wife,
"One thing I would give if I could—
I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the health
Of the man who is sawing the wood."

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work,
Whose face, as the morning was fair,
Went tripping along with a smile of delight,
While humming a love breathing air.

She looked on the carriage, the lady she saw
Arrayed in apparel so fine,
And said in a whisper, "I wish from my heart
Those satins and laces were mine."

The lady looked out on the maid with her work,
So fair in her calico dress,
And said, "I'd relinquish position and wealth
Her beauty and power to possess."
Thus it is in the world, whatever our lot,
Our minds and our time we employ
In longing and sighing for what we have not,
Ungrateful for what we enjoy.

Ten Little Pumpkins

Ten little pumpkins sitting on a vine!
Through the fence a cow's head came,
Then there were nine.

Nine little pumpkins growing near the gate;
Over one a wagon rolled, then there were eight.

Eight little pumpkins growing round and even;
Baby thought he'd found a ball, then there were seven.

Seven little pumpkins with the tall weeds mix;
Along came the gardener's hoe, then there were six.

Six little pumpkins left to grow and thrive;
On one the pony stepped, then there were five.

Five little pumpkins where ten grew before;
One withered in the sun, then there were four.

Four little pumpkins, green as green could be;
Johnny made a lantern, then there were three.

Three big, green pumpkins; then said little Sue,
"Make me a lantern, please," then there were two.

Two yellow pumpkins ripening in the sun;
Aunt Mary took one home, then there was but one.

One ripe pumpkin, largest of the many;
Robbie found for grandma, then there wasn't any.

—Youth's Companion.

"I'll Try" and "I Will"

"I'll Try" is a soldier;
"I Will" is a king;
Be sure they are near
When the school-bells ring.
And boys are men,
"I'll Try" and "I Will"
Are good friends then.

A Goose

Run along, Benny Boy! Do not turn back!
Geese will not hurt you with their quack, quack, quack.
What is not going? Why, you foolish little elf!
Who's afraid of geese is a goose himself!
