THE SPICE OF LIFE.

In an English paper the following ancient correspondence between the Duke of York, son of George III., and of a certain Mr. Ponsonby, has come out.

The Duke wrote: "Dear Cork, ordain Ponsonby.—Yours, York."

The bishop answered: "Dear York, Ponsonby ordained.—Yours, Cork."

"How do you like housekeeping?" "Well," answered the recently-married man, "it's only a partial success. The people who come to visit us are well enough pleased to stay a long time, but we can't get the servant girls to agree with them."

An absent-minded butcher out Grand River Avenue lost a good customer the other day in a most peculiar way.

One of his women customers asked him to weigh her infant son. Placing the child on the scales and glancing at the dial the thoughtless fellow remarked:

"Just twelve pounds, bones and all. Shall I remove some of the bones now, am I?"

"Miss Flyppe," said the hostess, "permit me to present Mr. Hogg, author of 'An Arctic Courtship.'"

"I am glad to meet you, Mr. Hogg," said the young woman. "Pardon the question, but is that your real name?" "Certainly," he replied, bristling up. "Did you think it was my pen name?"

THE DISCRIMINATION OF TAMMAS.

The Elder—Aye, sir, ye'r weel met. I jest want tae discuss thish Free Kirk beensness wi' ye.

The Meenister—Aye, Tammas, but I think we'll better wait until ye'r sober.

The Elder—Shober! Na, na, sir, I dinna gie a bawbee for theology when I'm shober.

After a stormy interview with Mr. Boodelle, the successful contractor and politician, the indignant caller had gone away.

"I fully expected to see you slug him," said the private secretary, "when he called you a 'persistent violator of the eighth commandment.'"

"I suppose I ought to have done it," said Mr. Boodelle, grinding his teeth, "but I couldn't recall the eighth commandment to save my life!"

A travelling man who drove across the country to a little town in western Kansas the other day met a farmer hauling a wagonload of water.

"Where do you get water?" he asked. "Up the road about seven miles," the farmer replied.

"And you haul water seven miles for your family and stock?"

"Yep."

"Why in the name of sense don't you dig a well?" asked the traveller.

"Because it is just as far one way as the other, stranger."
