DIED.

At Hillsburg, on the 10th Feby., aged 75 years, Eleanor B., relict of the late Mr. Walter Thomas, of Clements. She was baptized in infancy by the Rev. Joshua Marsden, and was for more than 50 years a member of the Methodist Church.

At Picton, of Diphtheria on Thursday 19th inst., Lucy Ann aged 10 years, youngest daughter of Captain Daniel Anderson. Lucy was one of our most interesting Sabbath Scholars. During the brief illness in which she suffered greatly, she frequently asked her parents and her pastor to pray with her. Her constant testimony was that she loved and was going to be with Jesus. Every one that knew Lucy loved her. We miss her from the home, the Sabbath School and the sanctuary. But she is with her Saviour and we are satisfied.

At Napuan, Feby. 24th, Anthony F. Pipes, eldest son of Thomas R. Pipes, in the 80th year of his age leaving a wife and child, and a large circle of friends and relations to mourn their loss.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep."

On the 15th instant, at N. E. Margaree, John Ross, Esq. J.P., aged 74 years. The deceased was for many years a member of the Methodist Church. His end was peace."

"METHODISM

EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA."

FIRST VOLUME.

Being a History of the Rise and Progress of Methodism in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland, and the Bermudas, with collateral facts and characters in these Provinces, down to the year 1813. The second volume, now being prepared by the author, will bring the History down to the period of Union—the year 1874.

Impartial readers, not members of the Methodist Church—men of high literary standing—have pronounced this the best History Nova Scotia has ever produced.

The Book has been put in the Market at a price which covers but little more than the actual expense incurred by the author in its publication.

The style is clear, methodical and often eloquent. As an accurate epitome of dates and circumstances, it has been verified by competent judges.

Sold, or sent post-free, at $1.50. Discount to Ministers, Sabbath Schools and the trade, at the NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Churches in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and the Bermudas have found a painstaking historian in Mr. Watson Smith, who traces their rise and progress, and chronicles the names and doings of the pioneer missionaries with loving care.—Recorder, London.

If our readers want to possess a history of heroic struggles and glorious triumphs let them procure this book. We trust that it will have a wide circulation, especially among those for whom it is chiefly written.—Argus, Charlottetown

As Methodism in the East and West is now consolidated into one organization, this history of Mr. Smith's is well adapted to make the Methodists of the West better acquainted with the origin and history of Methodism in the East, and thus bring them into closer sympathy with the work of our brethren in the East. A fuller knowledge of that work will be a bond of fraternity and unity. The volume is highly creditable to both the author and the publisher. It is got up in good style. We bespeak for it a wide circulation among the readers of the "Guardian"—Guardian, Toronto.

It is invaluable as a repository of the annals of Methodism in this country. It opens with a judicious chapter on the Origin and Characteristics of Methodism, and then, chapter after chapter, gives the history of the evangelistic efforts and operations of the Methodists, from 1769 to 1813. Mr. Smith has evidently bestowed great pains on this work. It is minute and comprehensive and appears to do ample justice to the subject. We trust his services will be heartily appreciated and that he will thus be encouraged to prosecute a task for which he seems peculiarly well qualified.—Presbyterian Witness.

It is needless to say that the book is interesting, especially so to our Methodist friends. While the main object kept in view by the author has been to present an authentic and reliable history of Wesleyan Methodism, he has necessarily embodied in his narrative many historical facts of a general character, bearing upon the condition of the country socially, morally and religiously, which are calculated to render it valuable as a history to people generally as well as to Methodists. The book is deserving of a wide circulation and careful perusal.—Chronicle, Halifax.

Its typographical appearance reflects credit upon the establishment from which it emanates.—Reporter, Fredericton.

This work will be found a most interesting volume, especially to Methodists. The time for its appearance had fully come. Such works as Mr. Smith's, connect them selves with general literature, and they become of interest, not merely to the denomi nations whose careers they describe but to every one interested in tracing the rise and progress of a people.—Reporter, Halifax.

We recommend our readers to procure it for themselves. It will do good both to their heads and their hearts.—Canada Methodist Magazine.

It would be a means of grace, as well as a source of valuable information to our people; and ought to be in every Methodist family.—Rev. C. Stewart, D. D. Prof. of Theology, Mt. Allison.

This book ought to be in every Methodist Sabbath School, side by side with the first books in real merit.—Rev. D. D. Currie.
