INDO-CEYLON TEA

The Canadian Churchman

Wishes reliable agents (men or women), to solicit subscriptions in every parish of the Dominion. Write to us for full particulars. With our two historical pictures, as premiums,—"The House of Bishops" and "The Clergy and Laity," taken at the late General Synod, any intelligent young person should be successful. Address

CANADIAN CHURCHMAN,
1 Toronto Street, Toronto.

OUR OFFER OF HISTORICAL PICTURES.

We have much pleasure in offering to our numerous friends and subscribers an opportunity of obtaining, what are considered on all hands to be excellent pictures of the bishops, clergy and laity, who were members of the General Synod, held in Montreal, September, 1902. One represents the Bishops in their convocation robes, who formed the Upper House, the other the prominent clergy and influential laymen from all parts of the Dominion who formed the Lower House.

These pictures are large photographs, taken by the noted artists in Montreal, Messrs. Notman & Son, and make a picture suitably framed 18 by 14 inches. It is almost needless to say that such pictures, besides having great interest attached to them at the present time will be most highly prized in years to come.

We make this special offer: Subscribers to the Canadian Churchman, who pay up their subscriptions to the end of the year 1902, and also in advance for 1903, may have either of the pictures for one dollar. New subscribers paying one year in advance, can have the pictures on the same terms.

The price of each picture if sold alone is $2.

Address, Canadian Churchman,
1 Toronto St., Toronto.

BE ON TIME.

The writer was not long ago instrumental in securing a good position in a store for a boy about fifteen years of age. He needed the place very much, for his mother was in the most reduced circumstances, and this boy was the eldest of six children, and the mother was a widow.

At the end of two weeks the mother came to me to ask if I would be willing to go to the store and ask the proprietor to take Willie back again."

"Take him back?" I said. "Has he lost his place?"

"Yes, sir; they sent him back home when he went to the store yesterday morning." A call on the proprietor of the store elicited the fact that the boy had been discharged because he was "never on time."

"He was late every morning," said the proprietor. "He always had some excuse, but I could not have a boy of that kind in my employ. If I excused him I must excuse others. I insist on every person in my employ being here on time. I am here myself on time, and it is only right and just that they should be here also."

It is right and just that every boy who is paid for his time should be at his post on time. He will find that punctuality is of high value, and that the lack of it will be a stumbling block in the road towards success.

DANIEL TOOK HIS SEAT.

The following amusing story is told of Daniel Webster. When quite young, at school, Daniel was one day guilty of a violation of the rules. He was detected in the act, and called up by the teacher for punishment. This was to be the old-fashioned furling of the hand. His hand happened to be very dirty. Knowing this, on his way to the teacher's desk he licked the palm of his right hand, wiping it off on the side of his pantaloons.

"Give me your hand, sir," said the teacher very sternly. Out went the right hand, partly cleaned. The teacher looked at it a moment, and said:

"Daniel, if you will find another hand in this schoolroom as filthy as that, I will let you off!"

Instantly from behind his back came the left hand.

"Here it is, sir," was the ready reply.

"That will do this time," said the teacher; "you can take your seat."

A DEACONESS HEROINE.

A woman is a born heroine, says a writer in an exchange. Under the inspirations of the cross she instinctively rises into that divine relation which in all times has united great souls to admiration, courage, benevolence and power.

We cannot think too highly of our nature, nor too humbly of ourselves. Every illustration of self-abnegation for the weal of others commands our utmost admiration and praise.

A few years ago, in a certain deaconess hospital, fire was suddenly discovered in the frail wooden structure which contained the patients. All from the first and second floors had made their escape. Suddenly a girl's white face appeared at the third-story window. It was the nurse, Minnie Baumer, in whose charge was a man strapped to the bedstead under treatment for a broken hip.

"Help me save my-patient!" she cried. But the lower part of the house was a mass of flames and no one could help.

"Jump and save yourself!" they shouted.

She could have dropped to the broad roof of the veranda. Eager hands were waiting to assist her, but she only replied, "I can't leave my patient," and disappeared.

When it was all over, they found the poor charred body fallen by the bedside, the hands still clutching the cruel fastenings which bound her charge, in a last attempt, in blindness and pain, to undo them.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

You would not think to see Mrs. Broome now that she had been on the verge of nervous collapse, but she was, and gives full credit for her restoration to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. When bringing up a family and attending to the many household and social duties of this age, a woman's life is a busy one, and a strong system is required to stand the strain. As desirable as it is to keep up and going, there is great danger of a complete breakdown, and it is the duty of every woman to heed the warning symptoms, such as headaches, sleeplessness, nervousness, etc., and take active means of calling a halt before exhaustion or prostration come about.

Mrs. C. Broom, 298 Ferguson avenue N., Hamilton, states;

"For five years I suffered from nervousness and pains in my side and was so irritable that I could not bear the children to make the least noise, and found it almost impossible to sleep at night. After taking a number of boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the pains in my side left me, and now I am real strong and well again. I sleep well and the children's noise does not seem to affect me. I can highly recommend this treatment to anyone suffering as I did."

Women appreciate Dr. Chase's Nerve Food because it builds new tissue, rounds out the form and increases the weight. Fifty cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
