BEFORE THE YEAR CLOSES

It would be advisable for you to carry out some of those good intentions which have remained so long unfulfilled.

If the matter of insuring your life has been one of these, it would be well to remember that delays, besides being dangerous, only add to the cost of procuring a policy of life insurance.

It will pay you to have a talk with one of our representatives, or write to-day to the

JOHN CATTO & SON

55-61 King St. East, Toronto

Bishop Boyd-Carpenter was recently installed as Canon in Westminster Abbey, the ceremony being performed by the Dean, who is also in Episcopal Orders. The new canon's wife and one of his sons was present in the abbey on this interesting occasion.

A beautiful and a worthy altarpiece has lately been presented to the Church of All Hallows, Barking-by-the-Tower in London. It is the generous gift of a former member of the band of mission priests supported for the use of the world by the revenues of the parish. All Hallows is one of the half-dozen City churches which escaped the great fire of London in 1666.

A window erected in St. Mary's Church, Monmouth, in memory of King Edward VII., has been unveiled by Lady Llangattock, the Bishop of Hereford being the preacher. Four English Edwards are represented in it—Edward the Confessor, c. 1002-1066; Edward I., 1239-1307; Edward the Black Prince, 1330-1370; and Edward VII., 1841-1910.

A few days after the consecration of the two Bishops in Philadelphia, they were entertained by the members of the church club in the Church House, when 180 of the clergy were present. After an address by Bishop Garland he was presented by the Rev. W. C. Emhardt, on behalf of the clergy of the diocese, with a pectoral cross and a handsome grandfather's clock with Westminster chimes for striking the hour.

His Beatitude de Kyrillus V., the aged Coptic Patriarch of Egypt, who claims to be the 112th successor of St. Mark the Evangelist, has expressed his intention to attend the consecration of the cathedral at Khartoum next month, in gratitude for what the Sudan Government has done for the Coptic Church in that city. The Anglican Suffragan Bishop of Khartoum and his clergy are on most friendly terms with the Coptic Bishop of Nubia and Khartoum.
