An Act for the punishment of the Officers and Servants of Railway Companies contravening the By-laws of such Companies, to the danger of person and property.

[Assented to 16th May, 1856.]

WHEREAS it is necessary to adopt means for preventing, Preamble.
as far as possible, the great risk and damage to life and property which frequently arise from the non-observance by the officers and Servants of Railway Companies of the By-laws and Regulations made for their guidance : Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows :

1. If any officer or servant of, or person employed by, any Railway Company, shall wilfully or negligently contravene any By-law or Regulation of such Company lawfully made and in force, and of which a copy shall have been delivered to him, or shall have been posted up or open to his inspection in some place where his work or his duties, or any of them, are to be performed, then if such contravention shall cause injury to any property or to any person, or shall expose any property or any person to the risk of injury, or render such risk greater than it would have been without such contravention, although no actual injury shall occur, such contravention shall be a misdemeanor, and the person convicted thereof shall be liable, in Punishment of Officers or Servants, contravening By-laws, to the injury or danger of persons or property.
