

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, 28th and 29th NOVEMBER, 1834.

Board of Health and Health-Wardens, with unqualified gratification, cordially yielding to them in behalf of ourselves and our Constituents, our thanks and Your Excellency may rest assured that we will cheerfully provide for the Expenditure necessarily incurred on that melancholy occasion. Nor would we consult the feeling of a generous People, or discharge our duty in a manner becoming their Representatives, were we to pass in silence the personal exposure and the incessant and humane exertions of Your Excellency to mitigate and check the horrors of the pestilence : Conduct, such as this, has secured to You the unfeigned gratitude of all classes of the People of every part of the Province.

The prompt humanity exhibited by His Majesty's Government in forwarding a liberal sum for the relief of destitute Emigrants, who have no claim upon this Community, is worthy of the Nation which extends her succour to distress throughout the world.

We thank your Excellency for directing the Public Accounts to be laid before us, and for causing them to be continued to the end of the year, for our better information: We will carefully examine them, and the Estimate for the ensuing year, and cheerfully grant the necessary Supplies for the support of the Government.

Of Your Excellency's zealous exertions to advance our Commercial interests and uphold the civil and religious rights of our Constituents, we are already assured. We shall cordially co-operate with Your Excellency in the promotion of such objects.

We accept with pleasure Your Excellency's declaration of Your anxiety to be useful to the Province ; and we trust that the loyalty and harmony which have hitherto distinguished this Assembly, may lead to the adoption of such measures, during the present Session, as may be satisfactory to Your Excellency, to His Majesty's Government, and to the People whom we represent.

And being returned,

Mr. Speaker reported, that His Excellency was pleased to give this Answer to the Address of the House.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

I request you will accept my best thanks for your Address, and for the very flattering manner you are pleased to express yourselves towards me.

As I can confidently assure you, that His Majesty never entertained the most distant wish to compromise any of the Constitutional Rights of His Subjects, I can have no doubt, after the assurance contained in your Address, that you will enter into the consideration of the offer of the conditional surrender of the Quit Rents, which I was desired to make you, in a spirit which will lead to a satisfactory arrangement of that long pending subject.

Answer of His Excellency to Address

As I can have no personal or selfish object to gratify, in my Administration of the Government, with the assistance and zealous co-operation of the House of Assembly, I do not doubt of being useful to the Province.

On motion of Mr. Stewart, resolved, that no Bill be introduced into this House, after Monday, the 22d day of December next, unless by special Order of the House.
