Housekeeping Is Not the Task It Used to Be

MODERN invention has done away with much of the hard work. For instance, the cleaning and polishing of hardwood floors, the dusting of moldings, the tops of high furniture, the stairs, under the radiator, etc. These back-breaking tasks are now made easy with the

O-Cedar Mop Polish

With it you can dust, clean and polish a hardwood floor in the time it formerly took you to get ready to do it.

Besides, you do not have to get down on your hands and knees to dust under the bed or other hard-to-get-at places, or to stand on a chair to dust the top of the high furniture. All of the hard work is now made easy with the O-Cedar Polish Mop. It gathers all the dust or dirt from everywhere and holds it. The mop is easily cleaned by washing and then renewed by pouring on a few drops of O-Cedar Polish.

Try It at Our Risk Try it two whole days with this understanding: If you do not find it satisfactory in every respect we will return your money. The price is only $1.50 and it will save you many times over in a short time.

Oyapela, Niece of Creek Indian Chief, Fascinates With Tribal Chants and Legends
Charming Musical Assistants, With Indian Maid, Present "Different" Program to Lyceum Patrons.

Oyapela (which means "Singing Water") is one of the brightest minds of her race, a charming, educated maid, whose ancestors were the bloodthirsty Creek tribesmen.

Oyapela, with Miss Fanny Weinstock, violinist, and Miss Gene Burton, pianist, present a program of irresistible charm. Oyapela translates, in fascinating style, the tribal myths and legends of her race. She sings the songs of her people. She corrects the common story-book impression of the Indian and believes her platform work is educational as well as entertaining.

This delightful trio gives a "different" entertainment one you cannot afford to miss. Her talented assistants are distinctive musical artists and their maidens give a most delightful program.

UNION

Cattle prices were steady on the open market at the Union Stock Yards. The market was fairly good clean-up was affected.

A little export buying was in evidence, but heavy steers were inclined to sell lower. More bulls than usual were offered for sale and prices for these and cows also showed a ready tendency. Heavy steers sold between $7 and $8, with eight head averaging 1300 lb bringing the top. The top load of butcher cattle brought $7.50 and another load brought $7.35. The quality of the cattle offering was not as good as last week, more common and medium animals being received. Heavy cows sold from $6.50 to $8, with one bringing $8.50. A few loads of feeding steers changed hands at $4.75 to $5.

While calves were a little lower in price, best lambs sold higher. Few choice calves offered and the top was $12.50 with most of the sales between $8.50 and $10.50. Choice lamb sold up to $13.50, with one small lot at $14, the bulk between $12.50 and $13. Sheep of the best quality held steady from $5.50 to $6.50.

The hog market held steady with last week, sales being made at $10.75 f.o.b. and $11.50 fed and watered. Outsiders were in the market and made some purchases. Corn fed hogs from the counties of Essex and Kent are little in demand and packers cut prices for these from $1 to $1.25 per hundred.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klein, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein were surprised by a number of their friends and neighbors on account of their departure from the farm last spring. They were presented with the following address read by Mrs. George Filsinger, and a cane and cut glass set presented by Mrs. Wm. Leutke. The address is as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Klein:

On account of sickness in the neighborhood at the time of your departure, we your friends and neighbors were unable to assemble, so we are taking this opportunity of saying farewell.

For many years you have lived among us and proved a worthy neighbor and friend. During your residence here, no doubt you have seen many changes and have formed many friends. These remain so, even if you are farther away. We know that you have met and will meet many more, and long may you enjoy your retired life.

We ask to be remembered in this way:

When the flowers so beautiful
The Father gave a name
Back came a little blue-eyed one,
So timidly it came,
And kneeling at the Father's feet
And looking in His face
Said "Father the name thou gavest me
Also I have forgot.
Smiling the Father answered low
And said "Forget Me Not."

As a remembrance and as a token of our respect and esteem will you Mr. Klein accept this cane? We hope you will be able to use it many more years. And Mrs. Klein will you accept this cut glass set?

Thus wishing you the best of success in life, and many happy New Years, we are, Your Friends and Neighbors.

YOUR 1922 LICENSE

Don't bring only the money with which to pay the license fee. Have this data; you can't get your markers without it:

Last year's license number.
Serial number of your car.
Year in which your car was manufactured.

A good plan, where registration is not being made of a new car, is to take last year's license form with you. It will give all the information required.
