Presented Comedy. On Saturday the French students of the Seminary presented to a good sized audience, the comedy, "The Barbier de Seville." a drama of love and intrigue in the 18th century. It is a duel of skill and wit between a bold lover and a crafty guardian, for the hand of a A hi fair lady. Figard, the barber of Seville was Be portrayed by Miss Mary Peck, of Hillsro, who received great applause for her histrionic ability. The pronunciati and accent of the French was excellent and evidenced excellent ability on the part of these students. Addressed Y. M. C. A.

> On Sunday evening Rev. Prof. Shirley Case, Ph. D., of the Copp Divinity School, Lewiston, Maine, a native of New Brunswick, addressed the college Y. M. C. A. in Assembly Hall. He gave a very scholarly and impressive address on the subject The Significance of a Human Life. For ages man has been studying himself. He has asked himself three questions: Whence came I? Why am I here? Whither am I going? In answering these man has constructed many cosmogonies and science has added its contribution, but no better answer has been found than God created man in His own image." But whither bound? On this we have no real light till we come to the Phy New Testament, where the glories of the new Jerusalem are so glowingly depicted. The tremendous significance of the human life is seen only in its future, but the present is most important. Man, standing alone, is nothing. His Cl true significance is found only by linkhimself with the Almighty. We E are fellow workmen with God and thus able to make the engine dash headlong across the continent or the giant p teamship cleave its way through the
