

Plan General Strike For Entire Province Of British Columbia

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 16.—Though the concensus of opinion at the labor convention yesterday was in favor of having a general strike to bring more clearly before the people of British Columbia, the conditions under which the coal miners are working and also if possible to bring about the end of the struggle, many local labor leaders think the step is an ill-advised one and it is within the bounds of probability that when the question is put squarely up to the members of the different trades there will be nothing like the vote in favor of it that is anticipated.

This strike, if put in effect would affect practically all the organized labor associations. There would be a few exceptions, such as the printers, but generally speaking there would be a wholesale dislocation of business through its operations. It is difficult to give with any degree of accuracy, figures of measures in various trades unions, but a rough estimate places the number at something like forty thousand workers.

Taking the population of the province at slightly under four hundred thousand, one fourth of whom are workers, and reckoning that 25 per cent. of them are non-union and thirty per cent. of the union men are unemployed this figure would appear to be a close estimate. Labor leaders cannot themselves state with accuracy to what extent their decision will apply, but say the number affected might exceed this number.

GOVERNMENT WILL CONTINUE ITS FIGHTING

The Home Rule Bill Causes a Unique Situation in Parliamentary Annals

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

NEW YORK, July 1.—A cable to The Tribune from London says:

The policy of the government with regard to the home rule amending bill will be settled at an important meeting of the cabinet, which has been convened for this morning. Yesterday in answer to a question published by Mr. Bonar Law, member Asquith announced his intention of placing the bill down for discussion on Monday provisionally, but the second reading is not likely to be taken on that day.

From the parliamentary point of view it is important that the finance bill should be carried without further delay and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will probably be utilized for that purpose. In that event the second reading of the amending bill will be moved on Thursday of next week.

What the fate of the bill will be no one can predict, the circumstances being so abnormal. It may not survive its passage through the Commons but if it should happen to do so the bill transformed by the Lords will be returned to the upper house in a very attenuated condition. Hopes of a settlement by consent are fading.

A remarkable note was sent by

(Continued on Page Two).

BLEW THEM OUT

French Aviators Were Successful Against Fierce Tribesmen.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

PARIS, July 16.—How two military aeroplanes destroyed with bombs the inaccessible mountain stronghold of the Ria tribesmen in the Taza region of Morocco, is described in despatches which have just been received here. The tribesmen's retreat had been located, and General Gouraud sent out the two aeroplanes, one manned by Lieut Feierstein and Capt. Raymond, and the other by Lieuts. Paretti and Morleitis. The attacking parties carried four bombs each. They speedily discovered the hiding place, and dropped the bombs with such precision that the camp was destroyed, many tribesmen being killed. The aviators then made maps showing the position of the fastness which enabled General Gouraud to round up the natives who had escaped death at Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.

A significant incident in connection with the change of government, was the announcement that a special committee had left the capital last night for Celaya to arrange with the Constitutionalist leaders for a peaceful entry into the capital. The committee consists of Jesus Uriet, Jose Ines Novels and Enrique Bordes Mangl, former members of the Chamber of Deputies.

General Huerta's resignation was sent to congress late yesterday afternoon and was accepted by the Senators and the deputies after a brief debate, by a vote of 12 to 17. In the message conveying his resignation, General Huerta took occasion to make bitter reference to the United States Government. Following the acceptance of the resignation, Francisco Carballo was appointed provisional president and he took the oath of office at the joint session of the Senators and deputies two hours later.

A feature of the discussion in the Chamber while the resignation of Gen. Huerta was pending, was the speech made by Deputy Musquiz Blanco, who made a bitter attack on Americans and American politics. All the newspapers issued extras on the day's events. El País which was suppressed by the government two months ago reappeared last night.

General Huerta, who remained in the capital some hours after his resignation, is in flight, probably on his way to Puerto Mexico to join his family and friends, who left for that port a day earlier. General Aurelio Blanquet, his war minister and strong adherent, went with Huerta when he left the city late last night as did several other of his close friends.

Before leaving General Huerta went to the national palace, where he congratulated Carballo, who replied that he would do all in his power for the country's benefit. Later President Carballo conferred with the sub-secretaries of the different departments, all the members of the Huerta cabinet having resigned. A new cabinet, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps, it is expected, will be named during to-day. The diplomatic corps has arranged to make a formal call on the new president on Friday.