One curious result of the recent great northwesterly gale on the Norfolk Broads was the harvest of dead fish. The high tide which swept with such force into the Broads changed the color of the water to a muddy greyish green. It was as salt as if it had been taken out of the estuary at Yarmouth, nearly twenty miles distant. The effect was that tons of fresh water fish were destroyed in the Bure and the Thurne, including pike up to six or seven pounds, perch, tench, roach, and bream. These were floating on the water in such quantity that the villagers put out in boats and returned with food by the bushel for the fowls and the pigs.

Old Age Finds Its Greatest Comfort

in good eyesight. Reading or sewing are practically the only diversions of most old people, and unless they are able to enjoy these pastimes in comfort life holds but little for them.

Be sure that the "old folks" in your family have the opportunity to enjoy this blessing to the full. They cannot have it without good glasses—glasses selected at random or by "trying on" will not give it to them.

Bring them here and have an accurate examination of the eyes made. You may be surprised to find they had forgotten what really perfect vision is.

FORTY-FIFTH YEAR

WILSON IS TOLD FRANKLY HOUSE IS AGAINST HIM

Speaker Champ Clark Says Congress is 2 to 1 For Resolution.

PRESIDENT IS STILL FIRM

Germany May Postpone Sub Campaign Until April First.

Washington Feb. 25—"I think the chances are Germany will postpone this threatened performance until April 1, or at least until the middle of March," said Speaker Clark to-day, after a conference with President Wilson.

There is a rumor to that effect, and a postponement would give us more time.

Speaker Clark told the President that if a resolution of warning such as the President opposes were forced to a vote in the House now it would pass by a majority of two to one.

A resolution to express the sense of the Senate that any issue affecting national honor should be referred before decision to Congress, and that no ultimatum should be sent to a foreign power nor severance of diplomatic relations be permitted, without reference to Congress, was introduced to-day by Senator Jones, Republican of Washington.

Telegrams to congressmen from William Jennings Bryan, support the movement for warning Americans off armed ships, began arriving to-day. Representative Bailey of Pennsylvania received one, and planned to read it from the floor.

President Wilson reiterated his opposition to any action in congress warning Americans off armed ships in a conference early to-day with Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Kitchin and Chairman of the Foreign Affairs committee, and they agreed to bring it to a vote at this time it would be passed by a majority of two to one.

The President was unshaken in his position that Congress should take no action embarrassing his contention that the rights of Americans on the seas must be upheld at any cost and repeated what he had written last night to Senator Stone.

NOTHING DONE TO-DAY.
The House leaders went away telling the President nothing would be done to-day, but they ventured to predict for the future. They admitted that the situation was serious and could not yet tell how far the sentiment in congress would be swayed by the publication of the President's views in his letter to Senator Stone.

When the conference was over, Speaker Clark said there was a rumor that Germany would postpone the beginning of the new submarine campaign until April 1, or the middle of March. He would not say whether he got his information from the President.

"The sum and substance of the conference," Speaker Clark said, "outside of an explanation made as to the temper of the House regarding the diplomatic situation with Germany and some argument on both sides is fully set out in Senator Stone's letter to the President and President's letter to Senator Stone."

"We explained to the President, how the House felt in our judgment," he told the President that this warning resolution would carry two to one if they ever got a chance for a vote. Some enthusiastic gentlemen, I said, thought it would carry three to one.
