THE MUSICAL STUDY CLASS

The musical study class that has been organized by some of the musical people of our town has been successfully carried on to the present time, and bids fair to so continue until the end of the season which will be during the month of May next. The last meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. E. Rand and was highly successful in every way. About twenty-five persons attended. The evening was devoted to the study of the life of MacDowell, and his familiar compositions were played. Among the number that took part were Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Hare, Miss Knowles, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Tully, Mrs. Nwcombe, Miss Porter, Mrs. Woodall, Mr. and Mrs. Oyler, Miss Hardy, Miss Frank, Miss McDougall, Miss Shaw and Miss Cross.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. Donahue the president of the Club. Mrs. Spidell has been elected vice-president, and Miss Simpson, secretary. This Club is open to any lover of music and it is hoped many in town will avail themselves of this opportunity to become conversant with the great masters of music. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Dr. Donahue on Tuesday, the 9th day of January next.

MAKE PLANS TO SALVAGE LUSITANIA

London—Secret plans are being made both in England and the United States to recover the treasure which went down in the Lusitania. It is believed that the money, jewellery and other valuable are worth at least £1,000,000 and apparently all this vast treasure is free to anyone who can raise it. Even the possibility of saving the Lusitania herself is being considered, but no definite plans for the bold enterprise can be made until divers have examined her condition, probably next spring. Even as scrap her value would be very large. The position of the ship, 8 miles off the Old Head of Kinsale, has been charted with great exactitude, and she lies 270 feet down.

The United States submarine F-4, which sank outside Honolulu Harbor on March 25, 1915, was refloated and towed into harbor on August 29 the same year. She lay on the slope of the ocean bed, her bow 288 feet, below the surface and her stern 306 feet. Yet the divers worked in fair comfort at these depths, and thereby established a world's record.

GREAT GAINS FOR FRENCH

Four Divisions Win Victory Over 5 Divisions of Germans
Pepper Hill, Verdun Front, Friday, December 15—A short, sharp battle brought to the French today their third smashing victory within a period of two months in the vicinity of Verdun. Every objective point of the French commanders was obtained with chronometric accuracy.

Although the Germans offered a desperate defence the were like soft clay in the hands of the French troops, who squeezed them into any shape they liked, and only ceased to handle them when their own time came. Thousands of German prisoners poured into the French lines during the day including 200 officers, and large groups are still arriving. The total count already is 7,500 (the latest French official statement says the number of prisoners exceeds 9,000.) One division alone captured over 12,000 Germans within an hour. More than eighty large and small German cannon were captured or destroyed, and many others are known to be buried.

The villages of Vacherauville, Louvebont and Bezonvaux and Hardaumont wood are now in French hands.

The front over which the offensive was executed was ten kilometres long. When the fighting ceased, owing to the darkness, the French advance had exceeded an average of 3 kilometres along the whole front, at various points rushing further out and threatening the German batteries whose retreat was hindered by the bad condition of the ground.

GREAT ZEPPELIN DESTROYED

The Zeppelin lately brought down near London proved to be one of the largest and latest in the German service. It carried six suspended cars, or gondolas, each carrying an engine of two hundred and forty horse-power. There were five propellers, and it is estimated that the ship carried two thousand gallons of petrol in her various tanks. There are no less than sixty bomb droppers, showing the deadly character of her offensive armament. The total length of the gigantic craft was six hundred and eighty feet, and her estimated weight, including the crew of twenty-two officers and men, was fifty tons. She carried seven guns, of which five were Maxims. It is evident that these machines are rapidly becoming more formidable, but yet their progress in this regard does not seem to be as rapid as the means of meeting their attacks, for the destruction caused by them is much less than formerly, while more of the craft are being brought to the ground at each attack.

THE PAPER FAMINE

(Montreal Star.)
The printing paper famine has driven hundreds of papers all over the continent out of existence, with the prospect that 2,000 more will suspend publication before spring, while thousands of others have been forced to add 100 per cent to the selling price.

The latest reports are from Buffalo and from Pittsburg, where all the 1 cent papers have been raised to 2 cents.

The pinch is felt as much in Canada as the United States.

Famine conditions have been established gradually for a number of years, and now they are suddenly developed to the embarrassment of the newspaper publishers who, according to American papers, find the increased cost of paper more than three times their former profit.
