

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., JAN. 29, 1904.

Cleanings by Acadian News Gatherers.

Wolfville Division expects to pay a fraternal visit to Hantsport Division, next Tuesday evening.

We have been obliged to hold over a quantity of interesting matter this week on account of lack of space.

A number of Wolfville ladies and gentlemen drove to Windsor on Wednesday evening to witness the hockey game between Truro and Windsor.

Tuesday was nomination day for the town election, and Mayor DeWitt was re-elected without opposition. For the Council there are four nominees, whose cards appear in another column.

A party of eighteen young ladies and gentlemen of Falmouth drove to Wolfville on Wednesday evening. They were a jolly company, and evidently enjoyed themselves in spite of the cold drive.

The final dance of the Wolfville Quadrille Club will be held at the home of Mrs. John Collins, Feb. 5th. Part of program will be Leap Year dances. Bishop and Ward of Canning will furnish the music.

We understand that our townman, Mr. E. P. Herbin, has been invited by Attorney-General Longley, to prepare and read a poem at the tercentennial anniversary of the landing of De Monts, which is to be celebrated at Annapolis Royal next summer.

Crosier's Tailoring Establishment has just completed the first year of its business and met with splendid success. He does not advertise REDUCED SALES. His regular prices are equal to others' ADVERTISED BARGAINS. Call and be convinced. See adv.

Miss E. M. Chipman, Medical Masseuse from the Barron Posse School, Boston, is in Wolfville, and will give a practical talk on massage of the scalp and body at the Episcopal Rectory Saturday afternoon at 3:30. All interested are welcome. Residence Miss Knowles.

The Wolfville Horticultural Club has made a good start and yet there is room for more members. The meetings are held fortnightly at the Club Room, where lively debates are held on up-to-date issues in Horticulture. All who are interested are cordially invited to the next meeting, Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Notice

The subscriber wishes to inform the public that he has discontinued his business at his old stand, and is prepared as formerly to do all kinds of carriage work. Light and Heavy Sloven Wagons made to order.

CHAS. H. BORDEN.

The finishing of the new rooms in the Tabernacle has now been completed, and on Wednesday evening of next week the building will be thrown open to the public. A short and attractive service will be held and those interested in the proposed work will have an opportunity of examining the building, and getting an insight into what is contemplated by the management.

The new choir of the Baptist church is not yet fully organized, but already considerable interest is shown; the practices being well attended. Prof. Maxim, the much appreciated director and choir-master, is to be congratulated on the splendid work he is carrying on. He intends to give, at an early date, a special musical treat in the auditorium of the church, to which event the public will look forward with eager expectation.

Since the advertisement of the Wolfville Clothing Co. offering such phenomenally low prices for a limited time was inserted in THE ACADIAN, the firm has placed in charge of its manufacturing department a tailor whose great experience in the making of men's garments places it in a better position than ever to guarantee to all its customers perfect satisfaction in every way. Mr. Crandall, the manager, informs THE ACADIAN that the advertisement referred to has brought in a rush of orders which have necessitated a considerable increase in his working staff. The bargains clothes are being rapidly picked up, but we may be seen by the advertisement on page 3, there are still some snags left.

Hockey.

Two games were played in Aberdeen rink on Thursday evening of last week. Wolfville 1st defeated the Hantsport Strathconas by 4-2, and Wolfville 2nd defeated Hantsport 2nd by 9-1. Wolfville plays the Strathconas a return game at Hantsport tonight.

On Monday evening the Wolfville boys went to Canning and played two games. Canning 1st defeated Wolfville 1st 7-3, and Canning 2nd defeated Wolfville 2nd 11-1. In the former game our boys were somewhat handicapped by having to substitute two or three of their best players, but put up a good game. A return match will be played on Feb. 5th.

Owing to the Great Success of our

CLOTHING SALE

We have decided to continue it ONE WEEK LONGER!

THIS IS A GENUINE COST SALE!

and judging by our tremendously increased sales our customers appreciate this fact.

Now is the time to secure the only real bargains being offered in Wolfville. No fake business.

C. B. BORDEN, WOLFVILLE.

Horse Items.

The only Mr Geo. Wood may be seen almost any nice moonlight night when the sleighing is good, going at a mighty clip behind his dam of 'Guy J'.

'Prince,' our celebrated pacer, is out when it's fine, seeking words to conquer, but the boys' steer clear of the redoubtable 'Prince'. Some even take to the back streets.

C. S. P., the sire of Battery 2.22 1/2 and Eddie B. 2.16, is a black horse with wide white strip in face and three white ankles. He was foaled at Canton, Me., by Daniel Boone, dam, a pacing mare by 2.30 1/2 - Dan Allen.

Daniel Boone 2.31 1/2, was a brown horse, got by Rydyk's Hambletonian, dam, the dam of Bruno, Breeze, Young Bruno, etc., by Bellair. He was bred by Joseph Harker, New York, sire of Susie Owen, 2.26, Nellie M. 2.28 1/2, and a brilliant line of descendants.

We noticed a Mr Shaw of Hants Co. in town recently and he was driving a gay stepping young mare out of 'Young Lingo', and sired by Allie Clay by Almont, Young Lingo was out of 'Lingo' formerly owned by W. E. Masters at Centerville, and later by Jim Golden, at Boston. Young Lingo, was sired by Dandy Diamond, whose sire was Maine Slasher, son of Gen. Knot, dam thoroughbred.

Kentville.

The chief subject of talk this week has been the town elections. There will be no election for mayor. W. E. Roscoe was the only nominee for that position. There are six councillors nominated to fill the vacancy in the council. The nominees are: Ernest Dodge, W. E. Porter, Mr. Bell, John Shaw, Mr. McCormick and Mr. Ward. From these, the voters must select three.

The new out-door rink has been well patronized since it was opened. One of the cold nights some young men were frost-bitten while skating.

The Art Club.

The Wolfville Art Association at a business meeting held on Saturday last decided to reorganize. The club has been most fortunate in inducing Miss Minnie Chipman, who visited and studied at the principal Art centers of the world last year, to give a series of eight lectures. At these lectures Miss Chipman has consented to give the club the use of her collection of pictures, and for greater convenience in this and other reference matter, the use of a class room in the seminary. The cost of the course will be only one dollar. As the preparation of these lectures will entail a great deal of work, it is hoped that all the old members and as many new ones as possible will avail themselves of this splendid opportunity. The first meeting will be held to-morrow afternoon at half past three, in the seminary. The following will be the subjects considered during the course:

Jan. 30. FRANCE.—Cathedrals of Rouen and Paris Outline of the development of Temple Architecture. Art Treasures of the Louvre and Luxembourg.

Feb. 13. THE NETHERLANDS.—Antwerp, The Hague, Amsterdam. The works of Rubens, Rembrandt, Vandyck, and the Minor Dutchmen.

Feb. 27. GERMANY.—Berlin, Dresden, Nuremberg, Munich. Outline of the development of Sculpture.

March 12. VENICE.—Cathedral and Palazzo of L. Marco. Development of Venetian Painting with special reference to Titian, Veronese and Tintoretto.

March 26. FLORENCE.—Cathedral and Tower. Comparative study of bronze doors of the Baptistery. Genus of the Uffizi and Petto Galleries. San Lorenzo, Sculptures by Michael Angelo, and Fra Angelico.

April 9. ROME.—The Forum, Colosseum, Pantheon, St. Peter's, Art treasures of the Vatican, Development of Mosaics in the churches of Rome.

April 23. SICILY.—Taormina, Syracuse, Greece; Delphi, Olympia, Mycenae, Tiryns.

May 17. ATHENS.—Architectural Monuments of the Acropolis, Acropolis Museum, Kerameikos.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express, through the columns of THE ACADIAN, my heartfelt gratitude to all the kind friends of Gaspereau and Wolfville, who remembered my family and myself in our great bereavement, the death of our loved one, Rev. H. N. Parry. Your sympathetic words and generous gifts have done much to sweeten the bitter waters of sorrow. While we cannot understand this act of Providence we can wait and trust, until we meet.

Beyond the partings and the meetings, Beyond the farewells and the greetings, Yours sincerely, Mrs H. N. PARRY.

The Hungarian Diet.

The obstructionists in the Hungarian house of parliament—or, as it is known, the diet—have been making things pretty lively for the prime minister. This turmoil is only characteristic of south European countries. Meantime in this part of the world we continue to enjoy peace and contentment—and—MORSE'S TEAS.
