

THE WEEKLY MAIL FOR 1881.

Since the last prospectus of the WEEKLY MAIL was issued, THE MAIL has moved into its new building at the corner of King and Bay streets, which is now one of the finest and most complete publishing houses on the continent.

winical Treasurer. In other words, the municipality is deprived of one of its most important privileges, and of a considerable portion of its revenue at the same time.

THE DEAD-LOCK IN ENGLAND.

This report published a short time since, that Mr. Gladstone is looking care-worn and irritated, is in all probability true.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

The new court house question will probably remain in abeyance until the meeting of the Local Assembly.

IRISH EMIGRATION.

Thirty odd years ago, when the Irish people were fleeing from plague and famine, ten thousand of them died of cholera in the Gulf, and a monument on Grosvenor Island marks the spot where hundreds of them perished while in quarantine.

THE OTTAWA OPPOSITION.

The Ottawa Opposition will become famous in political history for its defeat. Ever since the general election the Liberal party has steadily lost ground, and the followers of Mr. Blake now number several less than Mr. Mackenzie's old bodyguard.

SHE ERRED, AND CORONER'S INQUEST ON JESSIE LAYTON.

According to previous news, Riddell held a coroner's inquest on Friday morning on the body of a young girl named Layton, Pearson, who died in that neighbourhood, after a court-martial jury, composed of one of the other half of the court, and the other half of the court, were summoned.

THE WEEKLY MAIL.

Our arrangements with the New York Herald for the simultaneous publication of its special cable despatches continue; and particular interest is being paid to British politics, Irish affairs, and other matters of interest to Canadians.

THE MEETING OF PARLIAMENT.

In the minds of most people in Canada the coming session of Parliament resolves itself, for the present, into a meeting for the purpose of assenting to the Pacific railway negotiations.

THE CANADIAN ANNUAL.

For 1881 will be given three to all yearly subscribers. The following table of contents will give a slight idea of the value of the Annual as a book of reference, a compendium of the year, and a book of records of unusual excellence.

PROVINCIAL CENTRALISATION.

The Reform party always, when out of office, contended for the principle of popular government, and expressed its detestation of those who look to themselves as powers which rightfully belonged to the people.

FRANCE AND CANADA.

The speeches at the banquet given at Montreal the other night to the representative of the Credit Foncier de Quebec, and the eminent journalist who accompanies him, were eminently satisfactory from a Canadian point of view.

THE LIMITS OF TOLERATION.

In England and Scotland, at the present moment the public mind is much agitated over a question occurring almost simultaneously in each.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Messrs. Caron and Mousset were elected by acclamation on Saturday in Quebec City and Rego. The Rouges at one time talked of opposing them, but wiser and more generous feelings prevailed.
