has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fity persons who would pentitly by the facilit in his case.

Yours willy.

FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of amout the desecration, in a small way, of the Catholic cemetery by the removal of flowers and in other ways injuring the place. Early and all as it is, similar complaints are heard this season. In the name of decency, and respect for the dead, let it be stopped.

A Souris correspondent writes to the effect that Mr. S. P. Campbell discovered recently near the season-hore, some thirty feet from the top of a cliff, specimens which are declared by an expert to contain gold. The specimens will be investigated, as well as the place whence they were taken, and a company will be formed if the results are found satisfactory.
