A HEAVY thunderstorm took place on Wednesday last and was particularly severe in the eastern section of the Province. Mr. Daniel Modillan, of St. Peter's Road, about five miles from Cardigan, while at work in a hay field was struck by lightning and instantly killed, a horse which he was leading at the time was also killed, but not immediately. His brother who was near the spot at the time witnessed the accident. Mr. Modillan was 32 years of age and unmarried. A barn owned by Mr. Wm. Bruce, of Brooklyn, Lot 61, was also struck by the lightning and two horses belonging to Mr. Alex. Bruce which were inside the building were killed.

(This item was inadvertently omitted from last week's issue, for which it was intended) On Sunday last, July 29, the diocese of St. Paul, Minn., was well represented in St. Dunstan's Cathedral. Rev. Father Reardon, of that diocese, sang the high Mass, and the sermon of the day was preached by Rev. Father Woods, of the same diocese. The theme of his discourse was the Blessed Eucharist, and his text was: "Behold I am with you all day even to the consummation of the world." In beautiful and eloquent language he portrayed the unspeakable goodness and mercy of God, and His loving condescension in dwelling perpetually among us in the Sacrament ing perpetually among us in the Sacrament of the altar. He admonished all to make a return of His love and to frequently visit our Eucharistic Lord veiled for us in the tabernacle. This was the fountain of grace; here we could find solace for our wounded souls. We should approach this never ending source of grace and mercy without restraint.

THE HEALTH PROBLEM Is much simpler than is sometimes supposed. Health depends chiefly upon perfect digestion and pure blood, and the problem is solved very readily by Hood's Sarsaparilla. You may keep well by taking it promptly for any stomach or blood disorder. Its cures of scrofula, salt rheum, catarrh, dyspepsia, rheumatism and other diseases are numbered by the thousands.

The favorite family cathartic is Hood's Pills.
