Co. has opened out a commercial telegraph agency in Goderich, and will be prepared to do their share of the trade of the town. Direct wire to Stratford, Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, doing away with necessity for repeating. R. Radcliffe, the local agent says he doesn't want all the trade, but only a share of what is going.

They will not canvass for provisions this year as on former occasions, but will trust to the liberality of friends to make voluntary donations to the event. The school is undenominational and is deserving of support. Persons desirous of helping the picnic along will kindly leave funds or provisions at the store of M. McGilivray, North St., up to noon of Thursday.

NEW FEATURES FOR THE FAIR.—At the meeting of the directors of the West Huron Agricultural Society, held last week, it was arranged that a committee be appointed to confer with the Sanger upon the advisability of getting up special features of attractions for the coming great fair to be held in Goderich on the 4th, 5th and 6th of Oct. The committee will meet the mayor this afternoon, and we believe arrangements will be made to secure a number of special attractions in connection with the show.

Paramount. Misses Mary E. Murchison, and Lizzie Murdoch of this place, are at present visiting friends, the former at Kincardine and the latter at Bussels.

The Murdoch Bros, with five of their men, are erecting a fine stone dwelling in the vicinity of Ethel.

Dewdrop Lodge, I. O. G. T. held an open lodge last Friday night. The attendance was not very large, but was as large as could be expected owing to this time of the year. The programme was of a high order. In addition to the list confining themselves pretty much to the great cause that they are banded together for. Every person went home highly pleased with the evening's entertainment. The people of this vicinity may expect an entertainment of this kind at least every three months, and perhaps oftener.

What might have been a serious accident took place last Sunday afternoon. As Miss Martha Murdoch was driving her sister Lizzie, who has not been well for some time past, to Sunday school in company with Miss Lizzie McMillan and two small children, Lovel Murdoch, and his niece Grace Cameron, while going down the hill the breaching broke on both sides, letting the buggy run against the horse's heels, frightening him so that he ran away. A crowd of boys ahead seeing the affair, stood in a line across the road to stop him causing the horse to at once take the ditch which was not very shallow. All at once the shafts which were attached to the rig with a spring, came out and the horse got clear, but not without taking Martha with him. She was dragged about 20 feet. She saw she could not hold him, and she let go but not without getting badly hurt. As luck would have it, Dr McCrimmon arrived on the scene at once while on his way to see a patient, but his services were not needed any further than to take her home. The rest got off with a bad fright. One of the shafts was splintered and two of the side spokes of the cover knocked out of place. We are pleased to learn that Martha is recovering.

The temporary staging on which the Duchess of Edinburgh stood at the life boat launch Monday at the Isle of Wight, collapsed during the ceremony. The Princess Beatrice was precipitated toward the sea, and barely escaped a ducking.

An old farmer in Hamilton township, when potatoes were high not long ago, was offered a dollar a bushel for one hundred bushels. He has been waiting ever since, and would gladly take fifty cents a bushel for them now, but as new potatoes are in he will likely have to feed the old ones to his pig.

Auburn.

(Too late for last week.) Edmund Downs, of Clinton, is home for holidays. The children and niece of Roy Thos Geo are visiting friends near Chatham.

Arthur Irwin, a former Auburn boy, visited our town last week. He was looking his prettiest.

Wm Woodman, of this place, was sun-struck last week. Wm Windmill was also smitten. Both, we are glad to say, have since recovered.

Samuel Scott, who has been to the Old Country on a business trip, arrived home Friday last, right end up with care, looking as if his two months' trip had agreed with him.

Gabriel Sprung had the bad luck to lose one of his carriage horses on Friday which was valued at $300. Its death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel while drawing on a hayfork.

The lawn social held by the Methodist church choir on the grounds of G. Sprung, was not as largely attended as was expected it would be, but a very nice time was spent by all who were present.

PAINEFEL ACCIDENT.—As James Clark was driving on Sunday last his horse took fright at a passing buggy, and threw him out of the vehicle. His leg was caught in the spokes of the hind wheel, and broken, causing a very painful injury.

Wm Sturdy has purchased the farm of T. H. Thompson for the sum of $4,000. T. H. intends moving to Blyth to live in quiet retirement for the rest of his days. As the old gentleman is a red hot Tory it is expected he will give a banquet to his political brethren before he leaves.

Quarterly service will be held in the Methodist church Sunday next.

The weather has had all that could be desired, and as a consequence harvesting operations are far advanced. William Symington, who has been laid up for some time past, is now around again, but it will take some time for him to get up to full shape again, as his illness took him down considerably.

The painters are at work on the premises of Mr Helwick, Mrs Turner, and G. F. Youngblutt, and the result will be toward improving our main street buildings to some extent.

It is understood that our business men and prominent farmers intend taking action in the matter of railway extension with Goderich, and an effort will be made shortly to divert the extension from Wingham to Auburn to Goderich. Some of the railway workers of Goderich and Wingham will be invited to be present at the meeting.

The Canadian Pacific railway will extend its Southwestern line this summer. It has been decided to preclude, under the Crimes Act, all counties in Ireland.

Large deposits of coal have been discovered at Crown's Nest Pass in the Rockies. Frank E. Egan, an old London printer, is Deputy Secretary of State, for Michigan.

Miss Rose Cleveland, the President's sister, will take a position in a Fifth Avenue, New York, school in September.

At Louisville, Ky., the price of tobacco has advanced $2.50 per 100 pounds in three days. The price is now down to a short crop.

The Art Association of Montreal has received a donation of $10,000 on condition that it shall be open to the public on Sunday.

The new Canadian Pacific bridge, crossing the St. Lawrence at St. Anne's, was completed Monday, and the first train passed over it.

Premier Mealy has decided to accept the offer of $125,000 in lieu of Montreal's indebtedness, and the amount will be paid over by the city.

Huts are being erected on Lord Lansdowne's estate at Luggeran for the evicted tenants. The place is now called Campaign Square.
