NO APPEAL.

It may be remembered that Sir Robert Bond on Wednesday said:—

"Under the Award of The Hague Tribunal this dispute as to the use of purse seines, and as to other prohibitions, was to be referred, as I have already stated, to a special Commission of Experts, to consist of an American, a Dutchman and a Britisher. In the event of our representative not agreeing with the other two, there was left to us an appeal to The Hague for a finalization of the dispute. But now, if I understand aright, the Government has deprived the Colony of this right of appeal by entering into a special agreement with the authorities of Washington to substitute another Tribunal in which the decision of the American and Dutchman will be final. This, I think, was a most unfortunate blunder. No doubt it will be said in extension that it was done to avoid the large expense of another appeal to The Hague. My answer is that all the money so far expended will be so much thrown away if we lost this reference, and that our safety lies in appealing to a Court constituted as was The Hague Tribunal. Was this return to The Hague, or to a special Commission, on the subject of regulations, the menace implied in the words of American Counsel to which I have referred? Probably, because he dwelt with more force than justice upon the poverty of our people. He may have reasoned thus in his mind: A further reference to The Hague or to a special Commission means nothing financially speaking to a great and wealthy nation such as the United States, but it will mean much to an insignificant, poverty-stricken country. This I say may have been the thought that found expression in the menace to which Lord Robson took exception."

A copy of the Agreement was tabled of the Experts is that there is no appeal in Article IV.

The Award as to the findings of the Expert Commission under Article III is in part as follows:—

"If not on the whole unanimous, i.e., on all points which in the opinion of the Tribunal are of essential importance, the Tribunal shall make its Award as to regulations concerned after consideration of the conclusions of the Expert Commissioners and after hearing argument by counsel."

Under Article IV, however, The Hague Tribunal is ousted. This is how Section 7 of the Award under Article IV, reads:—

"The unanimous decision of the two natural Commissioners, or the majority decision of the Empire and one Commissioner shall be final and binding."

That Guarantee!

Our Points Proved by Evidence of Conduct and Speeches of Sir Edward P. Morris and Hon. Robert Watson.

We are glad to find that the Daily News considers that it is "admittedly desirable" to add words to the guarantee clause of the Cold Storage Agreement to make it clear that the Government will not have to pay more than 5 per cent. a year on cash expended on Cold Storage plants and equipment, and that in any case the sum to be so paid should not exceed $25,000 in any one year.

It is true that in the 1898 Agreement such words of limitation are not to be found, but they found a place in the 1904 Agreement at a time when Sir Edward Morris was Attorney General.

The debate at the time showed that the Opposition of the day did not consider them unnecessary to render the Government immune from a liability for loss on the business as well as a 5 per cent. dividend.

On the contrary, a well known accountant who occupied a seat on the Opposition benches on those days, and who is now a member of the present Executive and holds the portfolio of Colonial Secretary, the Hon. R. Watson, in spite of the proviso, that payment was not to exceed the sum of $25,000 in any one year, we repeat—Mr. Watson pointed out that there was a contingency under which the Company could claim to be paid the sum to make up the losses and to furnish a dividend of five per cent. We give a part of this debate dealing with this discussion:—

"Mr. Watson.—The clause in those resolutions which provides for the Government guarantee is the same as that which appeared in the Bill submitted last session. On that occasion he had pointed out to the Minister of Justice (Sir E. P. Morris), who was in charge of the bill, that the clause was not specific enough. It states that the Government shall guarantee the sum by which the profits shall be less than 5 per cent. of the value of the company's buildings, &c., the sum not to exceed $25,000.

Now, when the company puts up buildings, &c., to the value of $500,000, the guarantee is clearly defined at not more than 5 per cent. $25,000. But he, Mr. W., submitted that when the company's plant was of less value than $500,000, we might have to pay more than 5 per cent. For instance, suppose the value of the buildings, &c., &c., during the first year is $250,000, our guarantee should not then exceed $12,500. But the bill places the limit of the guarantee at $25,000. His contention was, that if the company met a loss that year of $12,500, the Government, having to make up the sum, by which profit shall be short of 5 per cent., WILL

A. & S. RODGER.

HAVE FIRST TO CONTRIBUTE $12,500. THE AMOUNT OF THE LOSS, AND THEN ANOTHER $12,500 FOR THE PROFIT GUARANTEED WHICH IN THE CASE MENTIONED WOULD MEAN AN ACTUAL GUARANTEE OF 10 PER CENT. He did not think that was intended by this Committee.

Sir R. Bond.—The intention is that the guarantee shall not exceed 5 per cent. in any year.

Mr. Watson.—That being so, he submitted that the clause referring to the guarantee should be more clearly defined, in order that there may be no doubt whatever on the matter. It should be definitely stated that the Government guarantee shall in no year exceed 5 per cent. in the value of the company's buildings and machinery at that time.

Mr. Watson's suggestion was followed, for we find in the published agreement the proviso: "Such payment not to exceed a sum equal to five per cent. on such value," as well as the original proviso, "and in no case to exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in any one year."

All this was done with Mr. E. P. Morris as Attorney General and Mr. Morris, K.C., as leader of the Opposition.

It is somewhat singular that both provisos should be dropped now. The $25,000 limit was Hon. E. P. Morris's child. He had the proviso of a maximum annual payment of $25,000 in his 1903 bill and in that year explained to the Assembly the meaning of the guarantee, viz., "the guarantee was solely to make up a deficit in the earnings of the company, if it did not make a profit of 5 per cent. on its plant." But Sir Edward Morris limited the payment to a maximum of $25,000 in any one year.

The other proviso was Mr. Watson's, which excluded in any case the making up of losses and limited the payment to a 5 per cent. on plant capital.

It should be remembered that the Hon. R. Watson signed the agreement on behalf of the Colony and that Sir Edward Morris is in charge of the measure.

Why have Sir Edward Morris and Mr. Watson abandoned these precautions in the agreement tabled on Friday? These provisos of old were their own. Why have they now abandoned these means of protecting the Colony against heavy losses?

We call upon both of these gentlemen not only to stand by their own and to insert precautions, admittedly desirable, but which their conduct and words have shown to be absolutely necessary to protect the Colony.

Obscene Pictures and Mail Service Stopped.

The mail service to Bell Island has been stopped since last Saturday. The s.s. Euphrates left Portugal Cove Saturday to go to the Island with mails and passengers and had to come back without landing either mails or passengers. She started again and got jammed three quarters of a mile out from the Cove. Cape St. Francis reports to-day that the whole shore is covered with ice. The s.s. Mary is held up here at St. John's waiting to get round the Cape since last Wednesday.

Rev. Father O'Callaghan started the congregation at the R. C. Cathedral yesterday when he preached at 11 o'clock Mass. He said that it had come to his notice and to the cognizance of other priests in the parish that obscene and beastly and immoral pictures and books were being circulated in the families of the Cathedral parish and were being treasured secretly and read by the young people. The pictures were too abominable and the books too fiendish to even refer to, and there was no doubt on his mind that they were destroying the purity and innocence of hundreds of souls. He quoted one particular case where "the mother of the family read one of these soul destroying books to her children." It was almost inconceivable, nevertheless it was a fact. Father O'Callaghan appeal to the congregation to make a dead set against these pictures and books, and to recognize it was a duty on their part to expose the people who trafficked in them.

CUT HIS FOOT.—Mr. Kenneth Butler, while in cutting wood near Manuels last Thursday, allowed the axe to slip and cut his foot very severely. He was assisted here by his fellow workmen after the wound had been temporarily bound. Dr. Chisholm was called and put seven stitches in the wound.

Messrs. Job Bros. & Co. had a message this morning telling them of the arrival of the Cardinia, Capt. W. Carroll, at Halifax, after a run of 16 days from Harbor Breton. The vessel had a hard time of it and sheltered at Shelburne, N. S., and had some of her deckload of herring swept overboard.

Capt. C. Moore, late of the schr. Evelyn, takes command of the Waterwitch, and Capt. Horwood will henceforth work on shore, having been appointed ships' husband to the firm of Croble & Co. We congratulate the captain on securing this important position for which he is so eminently fitted.

The S. S. Almeriana arrived here at 1:30 p.m. to-day from Liverpool after a very quick run of 8 1/2 days. The ship made an exceptionally good run for this inclement season of the year.
