Man Still Missing Here and There. The Police Court.

Lawrence Byrne who left his home on Sunday last is still missing. He was last seen Sunday afternoon on New Gower Street, but his subsequent whereabouts are unknown, and much anxiety is being felt by his family. He is a cooper by trade and has a wife and four children. It may be possible that he left here on a steamer or some other agency of travel, but if exposed to the weather of the past couple of nights no doubt he may have perished. Search parties have been organized by the friends of Byrne, and together with the police will scour the different country roads to try and locate him.

Miss May Furlong will leave here shortly for Europe to select the summer stock for her large and increasing millinery business. Miss Furlong will visit London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna and will if time permits make a short stay in Rome. This will be her first visit to the Eternal City and she looks forward to it with pleasure.

Grateful Testimonial from Tasmania's Captain.

Dear Mr. Editor,— I, Thomas Walters, of Garnish, Master of the lost schooner Tasmanian, deem it my duty, and I hereby guarantee the sentiments of all my crew, in giving a plain, truthful statement of kindnesses tendered us after the loss of our schooner.

There is no necessity for going into details as to how or where the schooner was lost, as all that has already been recorded. After leaving the sinking schooner, we rowed seven miles to Renew's, with a part of my crew exhausted, in fact, nearly dead. On landing, the first man I saw was Constable Lynch, and I told him of our condition. He immediately took steps for our care and comfort. He took us to Mr. Jackman's, and there we were treated with the greatest of kindness. The sick man was put to bed, where he was attended day and night with all possible care and kindness. After all my crew were provided for, the Constable took me to the Wreck Commissioner, who did all in his power for us.

After being at Renew's two days, Mr. White, of Ferryland, came to our assistance, and hired horse teams and took us beyond Cape Broyle to connect with the cars there for St. John's. Unfortunately we were just too late to make connection that day, but we had no right to complain. We were pleasantly surprised to see a horse team with all kinds of food stuffs, sent by Mrs. M. P. Cashin from Cape Broyle, of whom I must here say we cannot live long enough to forget her kindness and if the Almighty treat her as she treated us, she will have no cause to fear.

On the following day we arrived at St. John's at 2 p.m. I immediately went to Mr. O'Dwyer, where I expected to find a little trouble, but on the contrary I found him like a father. He immediately made all arrangements for our board and lodgings; also sent a doctor to visit a sick man, in fact made all arrangements for our well-being at St. John's and passage to our homes. He is another man I cannot forget.

After all arrangements were made by Mr. O'Dwyer, I then went to the office of Messrs. A. S. Rendell & Co., and while there the Hon. C. H. Emerson was inquiring by phone for us and our welfare, and offered to wait in his office any length of time until I could call on him, which I did at 7 p.m. Saturday, when he inquired of me all particulars in re our condition. After I told him we were well looked after I left him, and on Sunday he called at our boarding house, staying with us from 2 p.m. till 4 p.m., where he made all arrangements for the sick man to go to hospital, and even promised that Mrs. Emerson (his wife), should visit him and see that everything was done for him.

This is a true and faithful statement of how we were treated, and if I live long or short I can never forget the kindness of the Hon. C. H. Emerson, who apparently could not leave us, and did not until he was fully satisfied that everything that could be done was done. I should esteem it a favor if the Telegram and Herald would kindly copy this letter.

Yours truly,
THOMAS WALTERS,
Master Mariner.

Garnish, January.

Red Cross Line Route.

The S.S. City of Sydney, which replaces the Stephano on the Red Cross Line route, and which was expected to be at New York to begin the schedule on the 10th inst., is still at Halifax, word to that effect having been received by the Agents, Messrs. Harvey & Co., last evening. The delay was caused by the ship being on the dry dock at Halifax. The ship will leave the Nova Scotian port on Thursday and begin the schedule form here, leaving the 21st inst.

A COINCIDENCE.—It is rather a peculiar coincidence to note that Capt. Connors of the Gaspe, who took off the crew of the ill-fated schr. Regal on Sunday last, had a similar experience last March. He was then master of the Maggie, which foundered in mid-ocean, and Capt. Connors and crew were barely saved by Capt. Marshall of the S.S. Sigona.

Treat For Boys

The ladies interested in the Juvenile Society's treat met last night and arranged details for it. It will take place Thursday evening and will begin with a moving picture display in the Casino Theatre, through the kindness of Manager Kiely. Tea will be served after this and then a concert under the supervision of Miss Bates, the whole to conclude with a dance for the adults. The bands of the senior and junior societies will be present, the former discoursing the dance music.

"BEAVER" FLOUR

is both a Bread Flour and a Pastry Flour

The perfect flour is the one that combines the good qualities of Ontario and Western wheat. This is exactly what "Beaver" Flour does. It is a blend of best Ontario fall wheat with a little Western wheat to add strength. "Beaver" Flour is equally good for Bread and Pastry—it has the real home made flavor that western flours lack. Waiting For The Fall.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Kindly insert the following remarks as a sort of explanation to a few rambling notes of some one from this place to the Daily News of the 9th inst. It can be easily seen that he is an out-and-out Government heeler. He has commended the Hon. John C. Crobie for building a post office, and promising a block to the wharf. Had he given the readers of that Tory journal an estimate of the cost of that building then the public would have known if Hon. Jack was an economic representative. No many know the cost of the building but it has been rumored that the contractor is getting $3,800 while the land which is about 35 x 35 feet, it is said, cost in the vicinity of $1,200; which makes it, if rumor is correct, a $5,000 building for a small settlement.

Now we come to that promised block. W. & J. Moores, were a little incensed because the contract for the Post Office was not awarded to them and to quieten them, and to make them willing workers in the coming elections, it has been reported that they have been promised a consideration. Then our Hon. member has started in to distribute money to individuals to spend on their own property, building wells, retaining walls, etc., but ask for money for any public service you have to ask some number of times and perhaps take a trip to see the Hon. member himself.
