Extra Postage.

On and after May 17th, 1918, every prepaid letter and letter packet posted in Newfoundland, shall, in addition to the postage payable thereon under the Provision of the Post Office Act of 1891 and Acts in amendment thereof, be chargeable with an EXTRA POSTAGE OF ONE CENT; thus a one-ounce letter will be three cents, and a two-ounce letter five cents, etc.

On and after June 1st, 1918, all letters originating in Newfoundland not bearing the extra postage will be charged two cents additional on delivery.

In the case of letters from Labrador, the double tax will not be enforced in Newfoundland until after the arrival and distribution of the first mail by steamer from that coast.

On and after May 17th, 1918, telegraphic messages, other than service messages, transmitted from one place in the Colony to another place in the Colony must have affixed thereon by the sender, stamps to the amount of five cents.

Telegraphic messages, other than service messages, sent from Newfoundland abroad, must have affixed thereon by the sender stamps to the value of ten cents.

The above regulations will not apply to telegraphic messages sent by the Authority of any Department of the Government.
