Are the Clergy too Young?

How can a boy of 23, unmarried, with no experience of life and no knowledge of the human heart, be expected to be a sympathetic and expansive philosopher, and friend to his parishioners?

This question is asked in "Cameos and Camps," by the Rev. W. Kingsland, but it is the kind of question everybody has wanted to ask everybody with regard to soldiers, but with regard to themselves: Can people of experience be expected to go and be preached at by inexperience? Yet they can never be sure that there will not be a soldier in the pulpit.

"Cameos" has already given his opinion on the subject in his own unmistakable fashion. According to Mr.
Kingsland, "he seeks out some golly rather than the young parson with gloves and cane, and pours his soul into experienced ears in some of his need. He doesn't want a shy, nervous, semi-officer; he wants a father-yes, and a mother-no. Canada, and New Zealand send their maturest and best preachers as the comforters and guides of their fighting sons."

Fashions and Fads

Chuddah, poplin and shark cloth are used for black skirts for winter.
Bright plaid skirts are apt to have blue for a predominant color.
One charming girle is composed of small balls of angora on strands of jet.

Japanese cotton crepe makes excellent winter frocks for small children.
A white velvet gown has a collar of kolinsky and a long train of the same.
A suit of brown molleton is trimmed with bands and bands of white angora.

BUTTONS and braids are the chief trimmings for young girls' jersey dresses.

Obituary.

W. J. CLOUSTON.

With much regret we chronicle the passing of one of our most well-known and widely respected citizens, Mr.
William J. Clouston, who passed peacefully away yesterday at his home, Queen's Road, after a rather long illness. For some time Mr.
Clouston suffered from an affection of the leg, and a successful amputation being effected, his recovery was hopefully expected. However, a few days ago the end was feared for when complications set in, and despite the assistance rendered by the doctors, death came as mentioned above. Deceased, who was 67 years of age, for many years carried on a large tinsmith business on Water Street, making it the success it is to-day. Mr.
Clouston had many friends who were drawn to him by a likeable personality, and to them the blow will be a severe one. Besides a widow and two sons, Walter, who for over a year has been conducting the business, and Leut. William, familiarly called "Billie", of the 8th Regiment, one daughter, Margaret, and two brothers, Walter and John, are left to mourn.
To these we extend sincere sympathy.

JAMES BROPHY.

James Brophy, son of the late John and Margaret Brophy of this city, passed away at New Jersey, U.S.A., on Monday last, death resulting from a week's illness of Spanish Influenza.
Deceased, who was only 35 years of age, left here about ten years ago to reside in the States, and in that time he had become a trusted employee of the Standard Oil Co. Two brothers, Edward, a shoemaker of this city, and Jeremiah of New York; one sister in Boston, a widow, nee Miss Nancy Roll of this city, and five children survive him. To them the sympathy of the community will go out, and in this we join.

MRS. MARY MURPHY.

There passed away Friday morning, at the advanced age of 85 years, an old and highly respected resident of St. John's in the person of Mrs.
Mary Murphy, relict of the late Jas.
Murphy. The deceased was well and favorably known in St. John's and in Blackhead, in which settlement she had resided for many years, and was always noted for her many Christian virtues, especially her great kindness and hospitality. She leaves to mourn her three sons—William and Thomas in Boston, U.S.A.; Timothy, the well known victualler of the West End, and one daughter, Mrs. J. A. Murray of Moncton, N.B.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Mr. Patrick Snow of Noad Street died on Tuesday last after a long illness of cancer. He leaves a widow and one son to mourn their loss.

It was indeed news to your correspondent that item in the Telegram that there were 42 cases of Spanish Influenza here. It may possibly be so, and it may be known to the doctors, but it is not known to be such by our citizens.

On the recommendation of the Board of Health the schools and picture shows will open on Monday. Is not that sufficient proof of the easy mind we have here of the epidemic of "flu" being present in this town.
Please don't say such damaging things about Hr. Grace.

The ladies of St. Paul's Church will hold their annual sale of work in their hall on Wednesday and Thursday, 13th and 14th. These sales by our church ladies are looked forward to as pleasant gatherings.

A missionary meeting will be held in the Methodist Church to-morrow (Sunday). Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, B.A., pastor of George Street Church, St.
John's, will address the meeting.

Rev. F. S. Coffin, of St. Andrew's returned from his holiday to Charlottetown on Wednesday. All his numerous friends are pleased to see such an improvement in his health.
Services will be held in St. Andrew's Church to-morrow as usual.

The Shipbuilding Co. are rushing their work night and day, getting ready to launch another big ship.
Mr. James Bradbury, of St. John's, was in town for a couple of days this week.
A baby girl was born to Captain Thomas and Mrs. Dunn on Monday.
CORRESPONDENT.
Hr. Grace, Nov. 9, 1918.

Mostly Sailors.

Although the Spanish Influenza epidemic has about died out here, we should not relax our efforts in combating the disease, and the health regulations should be strictly carried out. Most of the cases being reported now come from ships along the waterfront, the reason for this being of course, the congested living and sleeping quarters of the small fore-and-afters. The health accommodations are sparse, and sailors' eating and drinking utensils are common property. The stewards, in most cases, are men who also work at other occupations, and do the cooking as a sideline. Consequently, the dishes are never thoroughly cleaned, and immediately the disease makes its appearance, the chances are that the entire crew will contract it. Thus, we advise all skippers of craft, to furnish their vessels with a liberal supply of disinfectants, and to see that it is used profusely. The men, also, should be compelled to regard the rules of health, in default of which the disease will surely develop.

In Loving Memory

Of Corporal James J. Daly, Killed in Action, October 25th, 1918.

In Saturday's papers we noted the death of Corporal James J. Daly, who was killed in action, October 25th.
Joe (as he was familiarly called by his chums, was an exceptionally bright and clever boy. While at school he had the esteem and honour both of masters and boys, and at work he also had the esteem and honour of his employer. When he enlisted he was quite young, but he had the spirit and pluck which he was always noted for. He leaves to mourn him a father, mother, sisters and brother, and they have the sympathy of the whole community in their hours of sorrow.
FROM A SCHOOL-BOY CHUM.

Personal.

Mr. C. T. James, Editor of the Telegram, left by Saturday evening's train for Carbonar, to visit his mother who is ill there. He returns by to-night's train.

Mr. G. H. Ridge, Bay Roberts is registered at the Crosbie.
Dr. Smith, who has been visiting Placentia in connection with the outbreak of Spanish Influenza there, returned Saturday, and left again yesterday for his former station in Mil-lertown.

There left yesterday's express Mrs. Herald, who has gone to join her husband, Capt. Herald, who is at Saultville, N.S., looking after a vessel.

When the War Ceased.

The war ceased at 7.30 o'clock this morning, local time. The armistice was signed at about 1.30 a.m., if we allow for the difference in local and Paris time. There is a difference of about 3 hours and 31 minutes in the time as recorded in Paris and Newfoundland.

The Epidemic.

Four cases were admitted to the Grenfell Hall Hospital since Saturday; two were removed to the convalescent ward, two were discharged yesterday, and three to-day. No deaths occurred. The disease has appeared in almost every house in New Perlican, three deaths occurred the week before last, and four during last week. Twenty cases are reported at Winterton, but no deaths. Three houses are affected in Hear's Content, proper, and no deaths. We note with pleasure that the medical practitioners, in a meeting held on Saturday night, decided against opening the churches and schools yet, as the chances were that another outbreak would occur. According to figures published by the City Medical Health Officer, 63 deaths from influenza and pneumonia occurred during the month of October.

Of these, 49 were below the age of 30, and the average age of those who died was 23. Nine deaths occurred on the 24th, when the mortality was highest.
