A Delicate Throat.

Cool night and snappy mornings may bring reminders of a delicate throat. If you grow hoarse without any apparent reason, if an ugly little hack arises, you need O'Mara's Menthol Cough Balsam at once. It soothes and heals. Best of all, it prevents those severe spasms of coughing which are so likely to produce soreness of the lungs. Price 40c. PETER O'MARA, The Druggist, 44-48 WATER ST. WEST.

Our Book Column

"The Awakening of Asia" (Hyndman)—This book is the result of years of long experience on the part of the author, who has resided for a long time in China and also in Japan. The book is of special interest now because, during the war it was suppressed by the British Censor on account of the plain truths which it contained. The writer is in opposition to what he terms "the invasion" of the East by Europeans, who, he declares, may have brought some improvements to the Orient but they have also deprived the Jap and the Chinaman of a great deal of their rights as the owners of the land. Anybody who has read "Clemenceau, the Man and His Time" will find in "The Awakening of Asia" the same author, a book filled from cover to cover with fact. Written by a man who knows it contains things which could not be published until to-day. "The Story of a Lover"—This book is the autobiography of this sort to be published and will prove to be very interesting, owing to the novelty of it. The author's style is American, and the volume will take its place in American literature as a classic and as an autobiography, of a deeply amorous kind. The above books may be had at Garlands.) "Heart's" for October is of not unusual interest. The best thing it contains is "The Labor Unrest" by G. K. Chesterton. (To be had at Knowings.)

A Gorilla and Its Boy Friend.

Visitors to London's Zoo, on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays, when the weather is fine, may find one of the strangest sights, a boy and a gorilla in conversation, the best of friends, in one of the large outdoor cages of the Hon house. Unusual crowds are taking holiday trips to Regents Park to make the acquaintance of this extraordinary ape which seems so fond of human society. Within the cage hangs a rope on which the boy and the gorilla may be seen swinging in turns. At other times, they are strolling around hand in hand, conversing and evidently understanding one another. Should the animal behave, his companion has to scold; but, generally, the peaceful friendship remains unbroken. A photographer entered the cage on a recent afternoon but the gorilla made no objection. His owner is Major Penny, who lends him to the gardens three days a week, if the weather is fine. He arrives at the zoo in a taxicab, with his boy attendant, and later the two leave together in the same fashion. Surely, the taxi driver considers them the wildest of "fares"!

The gorilla came to England, a year ago, in company with a chimpanzee, but it would not make friends with the latter. Not until it was given human society would it unbend and become sociable.

France Can Rebuild Her Ruined Towns.

Cleveland, Ohio.—France does not need raw materials from the United States to build her ruined towns. William G. Sharp, former American Ambassador to that country, declared before the Cleveland Chamber of Industry. It would not pay to ship it, he said: "We are not—nor is any other nation—going to supply the material for rebuilding those ruined towns, because they have the raw materials they use, lath and plaster, literally in their backyards," he said. When you want Sausages, why—get ELLIS'; they're the best.

The Board of Trade and the Press.

Dear Sir,—The Council of the Board of Trade, at their regular meeting held to-day, Friday, October 17th, moved the following resolution, which they ask you to be good enough to publish—
"The Council of the Board of Trade being jealous of the good name of Newfoundland and recognising that 'the Press of a country is considered 'an index of the intelligence of its people, deprecates the tone of the 'press as evidence in the present political campaign.'
The members of the Council are confident that the public are at one with them in this protest against the publication of matter that tends to lower the moral sense of the community, and which must belittle the Colony in the eyes of the outside-world.
Yours truly,
For and on behalf of the Newfoundland Board of Trade.

Secretary-Treas.

The R. C. Church at Torbay was the scene of a very popular and pretty wedding at 3.30 p.m. Thursday, when Miss Mary Morey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Morey, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. William H. Liddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Liddy, Rev. J. J. Ashley, P.P., officiating. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white georgette, with hat to match. She was attended by Miss Eileen Kelly of this city, who also looked very attractive in a dress of pale blue nylon and black picture hat. The groom was supported by Mr. Patrick Halley. Following the ceremony the wedding party motored to the residence of the bride's parents, where a reception was held and the customary toasts honored, after which the happy couple, followed by the good wishes of their friends, left by motor for Waterford Bridge, taking the six o'clock train for Carbonear, where the honeymoon will be spent at McCarthy's hotel. The groom's presents to the bride and bridesmaid were pearl pendants and to the best man gold cuff links. A costly collection of gifts were received by the bride who is a very popular young lady. On their return to Torbay, Mr. and Mrs. Liddy will take up residence at the old homestead. The Telegram extends congratulations.

Finance Com. Appointed

A meeting of the Finance Committee of St. Mary's Church was held in the Parish Room on Wednesday night. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:
President—Mr. Max Colton.
Secretary—Mr. Rowland Williams.
Treasurer—Mr. Albert Heath.
The object of this finance committee is to increase the finances of the church by making a house to house canvass.
