 LOFTY, Pa., Sept. 6.—The little mining town of Scotch Valley, in Lackawanna county, near this place, was swallowed up last night in one of the most complete mine cave-ins ever known in this region. The wildest excitement prevails throughout the region, and details are fragmentary. It is impossible to state accurately the number of fatalities PETROLEA, Sept. 6 .- Oil opened and closed or if there are any. Sanada lambs were on sale, taken at $475 per cwt, with a few out. They were fat and of suitable quality. This price is likely to hold for some time. The Toronto quotations equal to about $375 per cwt, with added duty of 50c to 60c each, leaves still a fair margin in favor of this market, and freight rates from Western Ontario to Buffalo compare favorably with the rates to Toronto.

of the buried houses has taken afire. The cave-in was caused by the giving way of the timber supports in the workings of the Mount Lookout colliery. About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the inhabitants of the hamlet were startled by the rumbling, thunder-like reports which warned them of the falling of tons of rock and debris into the deserted caverns of the abandoned mine many feet beneath them. James Perrin, one of the oldest of the miners, got the men together, however, and started to lead them up through a tunnel which leads to the surface through a series of steep slopes.

The rescuing party on the surface had made an attempt to
