

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Wednesday, Dec. 11.—The market today was a light one, there being only few loads of hay and three loads of oats.

Hay sold at $17 per ton.

Oats brought $15 to $14 per cwt.

Messrs. Ellis & Flanagan shipped a carload of live hogs, which cost $5.10 per cwt. for carcasses.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

In the latter part of last week there was a large amount of produce offered, but so far this week the supply has been exceedingly scanty. The dealers and grocers had laid in a good stock, and consequently there is no shortage in any particular line. Prices as a rule are steady.

Grain—Oats are selling at $14.50 to $14.75 per cwt.; this is about the same price as they can be laid down here from the coast. The best barley sells at $13.50 per cwt., and inferior at $12.50. Wheat is selling at $19.50 per bushel.

Potatoes—There is a slow line at present; sales are made at $10 to $10.50 per bag for the local or home lots.

Apples are dull, at $10 to $10.50 per bag, and $1.75 to $2 per barrel, and occasionally $2.50 is paid.

Poultry—The dealers say that the market has strengthened a little, and they look for a rise in prices. One of the largest dealers quoted the following prices: Chickens, alive, 50 to 60 dressed, 50 to 60 per lb.; ducks, alive, 70 to 80 dressed, 80 to 90 per lb.; geese, alive, 70 to 80 dressed, 80 to 90 per lb.; turkeys, alive, 70 to 80 dressed, 80 to 90 per lb.

Butter and Eggs—There is about enough butter offered for all requirements, and prices are steady at 25c for crocks and 26c to 27c for pound rolls; the dealers do not anticipate any change in prices until after the holidays, when they look for the market to be firmer. Packed and cold storage eggs are being freely offered, and they sell at 25c per dozen for fresh-laid eggs, scarce, at 30c per dozen wholesale.

Dressed Hogs—Prices are firmer and the supply is short of the requirements; sales are made at $7 to $7.50 per cwt. and are likely to advance.

Live Hogs—The price for next Monday's shipment will be 25c per cwt. higher than last week, at 25c per cwt. The outlook at present is for a substantial increase in prices; small pigs are not as numerous as three or four weeks ago, and sales are made at $1.50 to $1.50 each.

Butchers' Meats—Beef sells at 45c to 50c per lb. for the carcass; mutton, 45c to 50c per lb. for the carcass; pork, 45c to 50c per lb. for the carcass.

HAY MARKET.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—Baled Hay—Timothy, $17.50 to $18 in car lots on track here.

Baled Straw—The market continues quiet.

HIDES, SKINS AND TALLOW.

Toronto, Dec. 10.—Hides—Prices are steady on the decline, and when holders are willing to sell cheap a good business can be done. The outlook has improved slightly, and it is probable that a return to normal financial conditions in the United States would be followed by a recovery in the market here. LONDON WOOL SALES.

London, Dec. 10.—The sixth series of the wool auction sales closed today. Prices on the first day of the sale were steady, and gradually eased during the series. Merinos today closed 10 to 15 per cent below the October averages. Well-grown wools showed the least decline. The unsettled financial situation, large stock of clips, and the weakness of the market during the series, 55,000 by continental buyers, and 2,000 were purchased for America. Fifteen thousand were held over for the next sales. At today's auction, 8,259 bales were offered. Competition was keen and full rates were paid, particularly for well-grown new clips. Cross-breeds improved and inferior grades were steadier. Followings are the sales:
